Teide National Park

Teide National Park, a World Heritage Site with over three million visitors a year, is the best place to see volcanic phenomena in Tenerife.

You'll be astounded by the colours and the wild force of this surreal landscape, overlooked by Spain's highest peak at 3,718 metres. It is home to many local species of flora and fauna, such as the Teide violet or the Tenerife bugloss, whose bright colours stand in stark contrast to the thousands of tonnes of ochre running through this unique landscape.

The Ancient Dragon Tree

Estimated to be over 800 years old, the Ancient Dragon Tree of Icod de los Vinos presents a unique chance to see and touch such an incredibly old living specimen of Dracaena Drago, which is known for being the protector of the islands. This colossal tree is 16 metres tall and it has a width of 20 metres.

Despite facing a threat due to the immense tourism it attracted, the Dragon Tree Park is currently open to visitors thanks to the efforts to conserve and restore the park's biodiversity. It is possible to visit the park on your own, or you can book a guided tour. If you decide to visit Tenerife, you can't miss this great treasure of the Canarian flora.

Volcanic Experiences

The island of Tenerife bears the indelible marks of its volcanic origins, with lava coursing through its veins. Its volcanic soil provides an opportunity to delve into this fascinating facet of the island. The five most visited volcanic areas are: Territorio Antiguo, Volcanes Legendarios, Los Dos Valles, Tierra de Contrastes and El Rincón de la Luz. These unique places offer the most compelling insights into Tenerife's volcanic wonders.

If you are into adventurous activities, you can explore the underwater eruptions, craters, volcanic cones, and vents, all of which contribute to the island's remarkable geological tapestry. All of this goes hand in hand with wine cellars and restaurants that embody the Island's magmatic heritage.

Anaga Rural Park

Anaga is a highland region located in the northeastern part of Tenerife. Its rugged mountains, sharp peaks, and deep ravines draped in lush laurel forests make this place one of a kind. It is a hidden gem that lies less than an hour's drive from both La Laguna, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the island's capital, Santa Cruz.

Due to its cool and humid climate, Anaga Rural Park presents an untouched landscape with breathtaking hiking trails, pristine beaches, quaint villages and a rich array of local flora and fauna. The park has a visitor centre where local guides can recommend the kind of hike that is best for you. All routes and trails are very well indicated, not to mention that they also provide maps. Venturing into this unique haven is an absolute must when visiting the island.

Los Gigantes Cliffs

Los Gigantes is a coastal town located in the Santiago del Teide municipality. The resort is famous for its cliffs of imposing stature soaring up to 600 metres above sea level. These rock formations extend along a significant stretch of the coastline, offering breathtaking views.

According to the locals, Los Gigantes' cliffs are sacred, as they symbolize the end of the world.

This resort town is home to nearly 2,700 people. It has a marina and a black sand beach. There is also a promenade with numerous cafés and restaurants. The cliffs can be easily admired from the sea, however, getting to the top is more physically challenging due to their formidable nature and rugged terrain.

Canyoning

Tenerife is crisscrossed by a large number of canyons, so it is no surprise that canyoning grows in popularity each year. There is also a rare chance to explore underground caverns hidden beneath our feet.

Embark on a dry canyoning adventure by venturing into the riverbeds of Vilaflor. Descend the canyon with professional guides via rappelling, and enjoy the picturesque hills, dense pine forests, and breathtaking vistas.

Los Carrizales is another opportunity to engage in thrilling activities like sliding, jumping, and rappelling down to discover natural waterfalls and serene pools. After a descent of 15 metres, you'll find a unique, natural water park.

Los Arcos canyons are a rock formation of warm orange and green colours due to the erosion over the years. This dry canyon welcomes experienced canyon enthusiasts as well beginner ones, making ideal for families.

Bird Watching & Stargazing

With some of the clearest skies in the world, Tenerife is perfect for stargazing and bird watching. The Canary Islands and Tenerife are the first places you can see birds on their annual migration to Equatorial Africa.

As for stargazing, Tenerife's high altitude and little pollution offer the best spots to see the cosmos. Some of the most popular ones are The Masca Viewpoint in Teno Rural Park, The Mountains of Guajara in Teide National Park and The Mirador de la Ruleta in La Orotava.

Birdwatching on the other hand, is something you can do anywhere in Tenerife, as the island is home to many species, some of which are completely endemic. The northwest region is its most remote area, where the infamous Bolle's Pigeon and the elusive White-tailed Laurel Pigeon live. Other regions for birdwatching are the northeast and the south of the island.

Dolphin & Whale Watching

Tenerife is a top destination for whale and dolphin watching. Take advantage of the fact that 21 of the world's 79 species of dolphins and whales inhabit the island's waters, including a permanent colony of some 500 pilot whales and 250 bottlenose dolphins. Most of these extraordinary creatures predominantly inhabit the waters nestled between the island's southern coastline and the neighbouring La Gomera. What makes this experience truly exceptional is their proximity to the shoreline, oftentimes only three miles from the coast.

Jungle Park

Located in the southern region of the island, Jungle Park transports visitors into a lush jungle environment with an array of wild animals. The park boasts captivating exhibitions, including a bird of prey free flights featuring majestic eagles. Other awe-inspiring species you can find in Jungle Park are wild cats, storks, peacocks and even blue-eyed tigers. This unique zoo and botanical park is an ideal destination for families looking for exciting adventures. Hike through natural trails adorned with rope bridges, cascading waterfalls, and intriguing tunnels.

Pyramids of Güímar

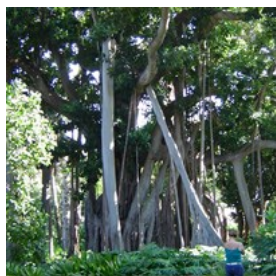

Located in the southeastern part of Tenerife, these curious, rectangular pyramid-shaped structures are a curious aspect of Tenerife's landscape. Archaeologists dispute why and when they were created. Most theories lean towards Aborigines and local farmers, although some believe these structures are the result of contact between the Tenerife natives and the Aztecs.

This archaeological park consists of six distinctive stepped pyramids of lava stone, standing at approximately four meters in height. The museum serves as both an educational journey and a tribute to the traditions and culture of ancient civilizations.

BEACHES

Turismo de Canarias

On the island there are around 70 kilometres of beaches where you can enjoy a variety of activities, including pedalos, jet skis and parasailing. Or you can just relax, let the sea breeze cool you down and have a quick dip whenever you fancy. Most beaches on Tenerife have been awarded the Blue Flag for the quality of the water, the services available and their easy access. Beaches with golden sand are mainly to be found in the south, from Güímar to Adeje. Las Vistas, Las Galletas, El Médano, Torviscas and Fañabé are some good examples.

Las Teresitas

Las Teresitas is the most famous beach around the metropolitan area of Santa Cruz, the Island's capital. At 1.5 kilometres in length, its golden sands are in close proximity to the small coastal town of San Andrés. The beach is also conveniently located near Anaga Rural Park. You can visit its lush green forests dotted with white houses first, then finish your day under a tropical palm tree on this iconic beach.

Black Sand Beaches

Due to its volcanic origins, Tenerife also has beaches of black sand, mainly in the north of the Island. On such beaches, your skin soaks up their famous mineral salts which reduce stress and increase blood circulation, among other benefits. The most popular beaches include Playa Jardín, in Puerto de la Cruz, El Socorro, in Los Realejos, and San Marcos, in Icod de los Vinos.

Volcanic Pools

Exploring the beautiful coastline of Tenerife offers a unique opportunity to discover natural pools created centuries ago by lava flows merging with the crystalline waters of the ocean. These captivating geological formations have become some of the island's most beloved attractions. Among the renowned natural pool locations are Bajamar, Punta del Hidalgo, San Juan de la Rambla, Garachico, and San Miguel. These picturesque spots offer not only a chance to cool off in the clear waters but also a glimpse into the island's volcanic history and its harmonious interaction with the sea.

DINING

Turismo de Canarias

The local gastronomy is a further example of Tenerife's authenticity and certainly the most delicious. Dishes made from local produce create a marvellous fusion between traditional and avant-garde.

Tenerife's traditional cuisine revolves around the abundant resources of the sea, with an emphasis on fish and seafood. What is more, the island's culinary heritage is inspired by South American countries, such as Venezuela and the Caribbean. The island's gastronomy is characterized by its simplicity, prioritizing locally-sourced products like fish, potatoes, pork and cheeses.

Guachinches

There is a type of establishment on the Island known as a Guachinche. These small, family-run eateries, often improvised on the terrace or in the garage of rural houses, only open at certain times of the year to offer wine from their own harvest accompanied by two or three traditional dishes at very affordable prices. Such establishments have deep roots on the Island, and islanders will be delighted to tell visitors how to find them.

Local Specialties

A great way to sample Tenerife's cuisine is to try one of the island's local delicacies, like the Papas Arrugadas served with red or green mojo sauce.

There is a rich variety dishes to excite foodies, such as the Canarian stew made with mixed vegetables and meat, as well as melt-in-your-mouth grilled sardines.

Honey is a popular dessert ingredient, and the island offers unique tasting honey obtained from endemic species like the Teide broom.

Casa Del Vino

Tenerife is an ideal destination for wine enthusiasts looking to sample a wide range of unique wines. The local whites and reds showcase flavours and aromas that beautifully reflect the island's climate and volcanic origins. You can choose to visit wineries that employ modern winemaking techniques or opt for those that adhere to traditional and time-honoured methods.

You simply must make a stop at Casa del Vino. Housed within the Casa del Vino, a meticulously restored 17th-century Canarian agricultural estate, this establishment has welcomed visitors since 1995. This restaurant specializes in both traditional island gastronomy and innovative, creative Canarian cuisine. The restaurant's wine list showcases only wines from Tenerife's five wine denominations.

Gofio La Molineta

Gofio La Molineta is a traditional windmill created in 1866 which is devoted to the preparation of a Canarian product made from cereals known as Gofio. This versatile ingredient finds its place in Canarian breakfasts and traditional dishes, available in various delightful variations, including seven cereals, chickpeas, and traditional wheat, all meticulously ground using the traditional millstone method. Expanding its horizons, Gofio La Molineta now exports its products to discerning customers in the United States and Germany, and their range is conveniently accessible online for enthusiasts near and far.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Turismo de Canarias

Tenerife Reina Sofía Airport (TFS)

Tenerife Reina Sofía Airport, commonly known as Tenerife South Airport, stands as the larger of the two airports on the island and is situated approximately 90 kilometres away from the capital city of Santa Cruz.

There are three busses connecting the airport to the rest of the island:

- The 343 bus line runs non-stop between Tenerife Norte and Tenerife Sur Airports in just 50 minutes;
- Bus line 111 (night line 711) cruises between Santa Cruz, the airport, Los Cristianos and Costa Adeje;
- Bus line 415 connects El Fraile, the airport and San Isidro.

As the second busiest airport in the Canary Islands (after Gran Canaria, LPA), the Tenerife Reina Sofía Airport plays host to a multitude of major European airlines and destinations, including the likes of Air France, British Airways, Finnair, and Iberia, among others.

Tenerife Norte Airport (TFN)

Tenerife North Airport, previously known as Los Rodeos Airport, is one of the two international airports on the island of Tenerife. It is located in San Cristóbal de La Laguna, approximately 11 kilometres from Santa Cruz de Tenerife.

There are four bus lines connecting Tenerife North Airport to the rest of the island:

- Line 343 runs from Puerto de la Cruz, to Tenerife Norte Airport, to Tenerife Sur Airport and ends in the town of Los Cristianos. This bus line runs non-stop between the two airports in just 50 minutes;
- Line 20 connects Santa Cruz with La Laguna and Tenerife Norte Airport;
- Line 30 connects Puerto de la Cruz with Tenerife Norte Airport
- Line 104 shuttles passengers between Santa Cruz, Tenerife Norte Airport and Puerto de la Cruz.

Unlike Tenerife Reina Sofía, this airport is smaller and it serves more as a connection between all seven of the Canary Islands. However, it also offers flights to the Iberian Peninsula and to other countries in Europe. Currently, Tenerife North Airport is home to airlines such as Binter Canarias, CanaryFly, Vueling, Ryanair, and others.

Santa Cruz de Tenerife Cruise Port

Cruise ships visiting the island dock at the conveniently located port in Santa Cruz de Tenerife, just a short distance from the city centre, approximately one kilometre away. To enhance passengers' convenience, the Tenerife Port Authority offers complimentary shuttle services to Plaza España within the city.

The port stretches over a substantial ten kilometres, encompassing the entire waterfront from the Fishing Dock to the Dock of Honduras. It prides itself on its modern and well-maintained facilities, designed with accessibility in mind to accommodate passengers with disabilities or mobility challenges. Remarkably, this terminal has the capacity to simultaneously accommodate up to five cruise ships.

Over the years, the port has garnered recognition for its strategic positioning, connecting it to a vast network of more than 270 ports across Europe, Africa, and the Americas. This strategic location plays a crucial role in facilitating international maritime travel and trade.

Puerto Los Cristianos

Los Cristianos, located right next to Playa de las Americas in the south of Tenerife, serves as a notable ferry terminal in the Canary Islands. It facilitates connections to the neighbouring islands of La Gomera, El Hierro, and La Palma. While Los Cristianos welcomes some cruise ships, its primary role lies in ferry transportation.

For sailors seeking both relaxation and convenience, Los Cristianos offers an ideal destination. Its location is in one of the liveliest and sunniest areas of the island. What is more, it also serves as a strategic starting point for voyages to other Canary Island ports. The area features a pleasant beachfront promenade, offering a variety of activities to enjoy.

Public Transport

TITSA manages the public bus system on the island. Line 111 crosses the whole island, from the capital of Santa Cruz to Playa de las Américas, stopping at the South Airport. There is also a small tram system in Santa Cruz, composed of two lines, one of which connects to La Laguna, stopping at many major landmarks and important places.

Taxis

Taxis are the most convenient way to get around the island, but also the most expensive. They are easy to come by as there are taxi stands in every resort. There are plenty of them driving around all over the island. You can pay cash or by credit card.

Medical Tourism

Tenerife boasts a hospital network with leading qualified professionals and the latest techniques and surgical advances. The centres meet the medical and sanitary standards of an EU country, but with significant price advantages over most European countries and America. This network even has a dedicated customer service team for international patients. Furthermore, it is possible to arrange transfers, accommodation pre- and post-treatment and to organise additional leisure activities.

Accessibility

The island offers a safe and comfortable holiday for people with reduced mobility or language impairments. Many of Tenerife's beaches, city squares and leisure facilities are equipped for the whole family to enjoy the outdoors. The island has 12 beaches equipped for travellers with reduced mobility. It is worth highlighting Las Vistas Beach, which features a support service team, including the provision of crutches and amphibious chairs for swimming in the sea, as well as designated rest areas.

Post

Tenerife offers several post offices where you can send or receive mail efficiently. The Spanish postal service operates reliably on the island. For added convenience, there is a post office located near the cruise port.

Business Events & Conferences

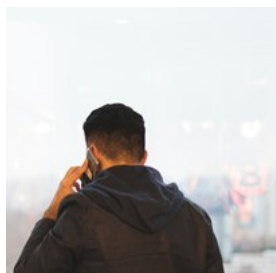

Tenerife is also an ideal destination for conferences, events and incentive trips. A comprehensive network of ultra modern conference centres and accommodation, able to provide every convenience and cater to any needs, allows the island to attract large groups of people. Its vast array of supplementary facilities, including all manner of leisure activities, ensures a successful outcome for any events held on the Island.
