

Derry

Photo: Spumador/Shutterstock.com

Nico Kaiser

Bildagentur Zoonar GmbH/Shutterstock.com

wfbakker2/cc by-sa 2.0/Flickr

Situated picturesquely on the River Foyle, surrounded by hills and a stone's throw away from the rugged Northern Coast, Derry is a city steeped in history. The famous Free Derry Corner and the murals of the Bogside and Fountain areas serve as reminders of Derry's tumultuous political past turned mindful present epitomised in the "Hands Across the Divide" monument. Today, 20 years after Bloody Sunday, the 2013 UK City of Culture has a lot to offer visitors in the way of art, culture, gastronomy and entertainment.

Featured

The Nerve Centre

The Nerve Centre is an innovative multi-media centre housing a bar, café, ci...

Free Derry Tours

Community led initiative offering authentic walking tours of the Bogside and...

The Playhouse

One of Derry's favorite cultural haunts, The Playhouse is an award-winning C...

Brunswick Moviebowl

Brunswick Moviebowl is an entertainment center for the whole family that hou...

St. Augustine's Church

St. Augustine's might not be Derry's most prominent architectural monument, ...

Top 5

Guildhall

The Guildhall, located in Derry's main city square, is one of the town's ico...

Saint Columb's Cathedral a...

Built between the years of 1628 and 1633, St Columb's Protestant Cathedral i...

Historic City Walls

It is essential to take a walk around Derry's beautifully preserved (and nev...

Museum of Free Derry

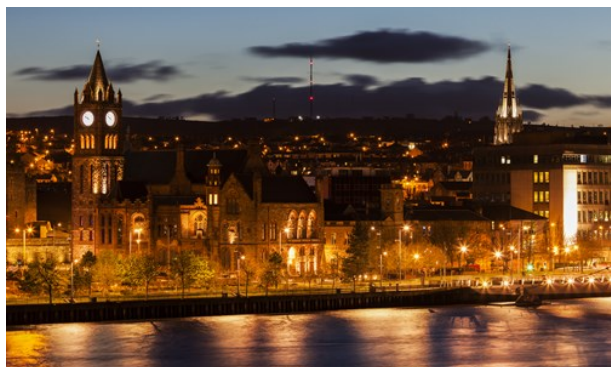

The exhibits on display at this local museum are mostly donations made by lo...

Tower Museum

This is an award winning museum that houses two permanent exhibitions, telli...

THE CITY

Henryk Sadura/Shutterstock.com

Northern Ireland's second largest city is located on the border with Donegal, Republic of Ireland. From the Irish Doire (meaning "oak tree") Derry, or the Maiden City, was renamed Londonderry in 1613 during the Plantation of Ulster. The name is still a source of contention, with Nationalists calling the city Derry and Unionists preferring the official Londonderry, with the former being most commonly used colloquially. The city is famous as the scene of Bloody Sunday, one of the grimmest massacres of the Troubles, and in recent years both communities have worked at breaching the political divide symbolised in the sobering statue "Hands Across the Divide", which shows two persons reaching out to hold hands across a crevice.

Native city of poet and Nobel Prize winner Seamus Heaney, Derry has a strong literary, as well as musical tradition, evident in the vibrant art centre and an abundance of theatres and galleries. Derry is the only remaining walled city in Ireland, and is one of the finest examples of a walled city in Europe.

Revelling in its cultural heritage, it also looks with pride and confidence into the future.

DO & SEE

Paco Lozano/Shutterstock.com

On the border with the Republic of Ireland, the city is a great base to explore the stunning beaches and hills of Donegal. In the town itself, an abundance of pastimes is available to visitors. Learn about local history at one of the many Derry museums, take a guided walking tour and catch an evening show at one of many local art centres. For a short nature getaway, stroll through St. Columb's park or venture out into Ness Wood a few miles away from the city.

Guildhall

The Guildhall, located in Derry's main city square, is one of the town's iconic landmarks. Built in 1890, it's been beautifully restored since, and welcomes visitors to its elegant insides where members of the Derry City Council still regularly gather.

Photo: Lindy Buckley/Flickr.com(image cropped)

Address: Guildhall Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7137 6510

Saint Columb's Cathedral and Chapter

Built between the years of 1628 and 1633, St Columb's Protestant Cathedral is the oldest surviving building in Derry. It's monumental appearance conceals a cosy, intimate interior, and the nearby Chapter House contains a number of historic artefacts.

Photo: Greg Clarke/Flickr.com(image cropped)

Address: 17 London Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Sat: April-Sept 7am-5pm, Oct-March 9am-1pm & 2pm-4pm

Phone: +44 28 7126 7313

Internet: www.stcolumbscathedral.org

Historic City Walls

It is essential to take a walk around Derry's beautifully preserved (and never breached) seventeenth century walls which surround the old city. This is a good way to get a feel for the city, and to look over onto estates on both sides of the divide. Guided tours available.

Photo: Reading Tom(image cropped)

Address: Derry, Northern Ireland

Museum of Free Derry

The exhibits on display at this local museum are mostly donations made by local residents, who experienced the turbulent 1960's and 70's first-hand. The over 25,000 artifacts tell a subjective, but authentic story of Derry's residents during the civil rights and Free Derry historic eras.

Photo: Hajotthu/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: 55 Glenfada Park, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 9.30am-4.30pm (All year), Sat 1pm - 4pm (April - Sept), Sun 1pm - 4pm (July - Sept)

Phone: +44 28 713 60880

Internet: www.museumoffreederry.org

Tower Museum

This is an award winning museum that houses two permanent exhibitions, telling the stories of the City of Derry and of an Armada shipwreck found off the coast of Donegal in 1971 through a range of displays and interactive exhibits. The top floor provides panoramic open air views of the city and the River Foyle.

Photo: Reading Tom(image cropped)

Address: Union Hall Place, Derry

Opening hours: Daily 10am-5.30pm

Phone: +44 28 7137 2411

Internet: www.towermuseumlearning.co.uk

Free Derry Tours

Community led initiative offering authentic walking tours of the Bogside and Fountain areas delivered by local guides to small groups.

Tours focus on the Troubles era and the events of Bloody Sunday, narrating the history of the area through those who helped shape it.

Photo: NH53(image cropped)

Address: Glenfada Park, Derry

Phone: +44 77 9328 5972

Email: freederrytours@gmail.com

More Info: Tour departs from the Museum of Free Derry.

The Nerve Centre

The Nerve Centre is an innovative multi-media centre housing a bar, café, cinema and two venues regularly hosting music performances, film shows and various cultural happenings. The center is also home to the Foyle Film Festival (annually in November).

Photo: aerogondo2/Shutterstock.com

Address: 7-8 Magazine Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 0562

Internet: www.nerve-centre.org.uk

Void Art Centre

Void Art Centre is Derry's artist-led gallery of contemporary art, which showcases non-conventional, yet thought-provoking works of established local, national and international artists. Talks and workshops are hosted here, and exhibitions change frequently.

Photo: blurAZ/Shutterstock.com

Address: Patrick Street, Derry

Opening hours: Tue-Sat 11am-5pm

Phone: +44 28 7130 8080

Internet: www.derryvoid.com

More Info: The Old City Factory

The Playhouse

One of Derry's favorite cultural haunts, The Playhouse is an award-winning Community Art Centre that houses a small theatre (known for its outstanding performances), a dance studio and hosts visual art shows on a regular basis. Check the program to see what's on when you are in town.

Photo: Reading Tom(image cropped)

Address: 5-7 Artillery Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 8027

Internet: www.derryplayhouse.co.uk

Email: info@derryplayhouse.co.uk

Brunswick Moviebowl

Brunswick Moviebowl is an entertainment center for the whole family that houses a cinema, a ten-pin bowling alley, an adventure park for children of all ages and a couple of eateries (casual diner & a slightly more upscale "Martha's Vineyard" restaurant).

Photo: Dmytro Zinkevych/Shutterstock.com

Address: Brunswick Lane, Pennyburn, Derry

Phone: +44 28 71 371 999

Internet: www.brunswickmoviebowl.com

Bloody Sunday Memorial

On the Sunday of January 30th, 1972, unarmed civil-rights protesters were shot by soldiers of the British Army only meters away from the memorial. Visiting here is a sobering and educational experience. Information boards detail the tragic events of the massacre.

Photo: Dan Merino(image cropped)

Address: Joseph's Place, Bogside, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 7284

Millennium Forum

Millennium Forum is one of Ireland's largest built theatres located in Derry's scenic historic centre. Have a look at the programme to see what is on while you are visiting — the Forum frequently hosts theatrical performances by local and international artists.

Photo: Sinn Féin(image cropped)
Address: Newmarket Street, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7126 4455

Ness Wood

The Ness is a beautiful park to take a stroll through any time of year. Do some bird watching, sit down for a picnic by the riverside if the weather allows or simply indulge in the tranquility of the park's quiet paths and scenic waterfalls - all within reasonable reach of the city.

Photo: Philip McErlean(image cropped)
Address: Waterside, Derry

St. Augustine's Church

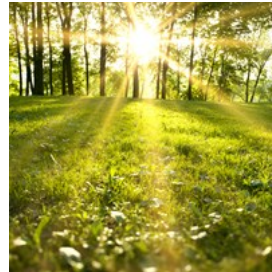

St. Augustine's might not be Derry's most prominent architectural monument, but it is a lovely old Anglican church enclosed in a cosy garden and radiating tranquility. Sometimes they have concerts here, and the church is worth a visit even if only for a short while.

Photo: John Lord(image cropped)
Address: Palace Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 8108
Internet: www.saintaugustines.co.uk

St. Columb's Park

St. Columb's Park is a perfect spot for a getaway in nature while still in close proximity of the city. Pack a picnic and, if you are lucky, there will be a fun event taking place at the St Columb's Park House. There is a children's playground at the bottom end of the park.

Photo: Peshkova/Shutterstock.com
Address: 4 Limavady Road, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7134 3080
Internet: www.stcolumbsparkhouse.org

DINING

Civil/Shutterstock.com

For such a small city, Derry boasts a remarkable range of dining options. The city specialises in locally caught seafood and fresh, locally sourced ingredients. Whether you are looking for a chic restaurant or laid back bistro, or even some tasty pub food and a pint (evenings at the pub are a part of local culture), Derry's restaurant scene has something to offer anyone. Many local eateries offer significant discounts on Mondays and Tuesdays.

The Exchange

The Exchange is a trendy, contemporary style bistro that offers an innovative menu with an emphasis on locally sourced ingredients. The restaurant is family-friendly and operates on a "first come, first served" basis (meaning no reservations).

Photo: Kzenon/Shutterstock.com

Address: Queen's Quay, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Sat: Lunch Noon-2.30pm, Dinner 5.30pm-10pm; Sunday: 4pm-9pm

Phone: +44 28 71 273 990

Internet: www.exchangerestaurant.com

La Sosta Ristorante

Central yet tucked away in a small, out-of-the-way alley, La Sosta is a family-owned Italian restaurant that is worth a little extra effort to find.

Depending on where you request to be seated, you might be able to dine with a direct view over the river.

Photo: zhu difeng/Shutterstock.com

Address: 45a Carlisle Road, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7137 4817

Internet: www.lasostaderry.com

Quaywest

Quaywest is a trendy, atmospheric wine bar and restaurant with a delicious international menu and very reasonable prices.

Housed inside a 19th century building, the establishment enjoys a unique atmosphere and serves primarily British/European fare.

Photo: Andrey Bayda/Shutterstock.com

Address: 28 Boating Club Lane, Derry

Opening hours: Daily noon-10pm

Phone: +44 28 7137 0977

Internet: www.quaywestrestaurant.com

Fitzroy's

The cuisine at Fitzroy's is mainly European, with a variety of savory dishes to choose from. Pricing is reasonable, and deals are available on most days - the earlier in the week, the higher the discount. It tends to get quite busy in the evenings, so get arrive early to be seated fast.

Photo: George Dolgikh/Shutterstock.com

Address: 2-4 Bridge Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 6211

Internet: www.fitzroysrestaurant.com

Email: info@fitzroysrestaurant.com

68 Clooney

68 Clooney is a nice little restaurant located in the Best Western White Horse hotel. On the menu they have traditional dishes cooked with a modern twist accompanied by a fine selection of wine. Serves contemporary British fare in a classic interior.

Photo: Andrey Bayda/Shutterstock.com

Address: 68 Clooney Road, Campsie, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7186 1438

Internet: www.whitehorsehotel.biz

Mama Masala

Mama Masala combines two great culinary traditions - Indian and Italian - into one unusual fusion, and serves Indian fare alongside pizza and pasta. It tends to get busy on the evenings, so it is recommended to call and book a table in advance, especially if you prefer to be seated by the window.

Photo: jazz3311/Shutterstock.com
Address: 24a Queens Quay, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7126 6646
Internet: www.mamamasala.net

Cedar Restaurant

Cedar Restaurant is family-run a Lebanese restaurant with a cosy atmosphere. Staff is friendly and always willing to make a recommendation for the undecided guest. For the best experience, do not skip the hot and cold mezze, kebabs, tabouli, falafel and hummus.

Photo: Mustafa Ertugral/Shutterstock.com
Address: 33 Carlisle Road, Derry
Opening hours: Wed-Sat 5.30pm-9pm
Phone: +44 28 7137 3868
Internet: www.cedarlebanese.webs.com

Timber Quay

Timber Quay serves contemporary Irish/British food right on the River Foyle. The laid-back establishment has a modern yet relaxing decor, a bar and fantastic food with great service. Try the Beef & Guinness Pie, Goat

Cheese & red Onion Foccacia and/or the BBQ Pulled Pork.

Photo: Mouthwatering Girl/Shutterstock.com
Address: 100 Strand Road, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7137 0020
Internet: www.timberquay.com

The Grillroom Restaurant

The Grillroom Restaurant is located at the Da Vinci's Hotel. They serve English and Irish cuisine in an elegant setting. It tends to get busy in the evenings and during the weekends so if you would like to be guaranteed a place to sit then you should book in advance.

Photo: Elena Elisseeva/Shutterstock.com
Address: 15 Culmore Road, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7127 9111
Internet: www.davincishotel.com

CAFES

AS Food studio/Shutterstock.com

Although perhaps not as popular as pubs, cafés in Derry are frequented by locals and visitors to the area. Sandwich shops, coffee houses and elegant bistros dot the city and can be easily found throughout.

The Coffee Factory

Café and roastery comparable to Starbucks, the Coffee Factory boasts an extensive coffee list as well as a number of small meals, such as wraps, sandwiches, bagels and even meat pies. There is plenty of comfortable seating available, both sofas and chairs, as well as outside seating.

Photo: JIL Photo/Shutterstock.com

Address: 55 Crystal Ave, Derry

Phone: +44 603 432 6006

Internet: www.thecoffeefactorynh.com

More Info: Hood Commons Plaza

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

wavebreakmedia/Shutterstock.com

Be sure not to miss out on a pint in one of Derry's fine drinking establishments. Whether you are looking for a stylish wine bar or a laid-back local pub, a friendly atmosphere and good music is often to be expected. Derry's young population (most inhabitants fall into the 20 - 40 age range) likes to party and clubs are usually open until about 2 am, some host live music shows. Most charge an entry fee. The city centre can get quite raucous when the clubs spill out so stay on guard, but is generally quite safe.

Peadar O'Donnell's

Popular with backpackers, Peadar O'Donnell's provides good old fashioned "craic" and live music every night (although shows often start late, and sometimes give way to live broadcasts of football matches). It's a proper traditional Irish bar serving beer at affordable prices.

Photo: Pressmaster/Shutterstock.com

Address: 59-63 Waterloo Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 11.30am-1.30am, Sun 12.30pm-12.30am

Phone: +44 28 7126 7295

Internet: www.peadars.com

Bennigans Bar and Jazz Club

Perhaps surprisingly little-known, Bennigans Bar and Jazz Club is itself owned by a musician.. Some shows (especially those on Saturday nights) are very popular and require pre-booking. Bennigans is also one of the select few places serving complimentary tapas along with drinks.

Photo: photobank.ch/Shutterstock.com

Address: 13 John Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Thu 4.30pm-11pm, Fri-Sat 4.30pm-1am, Sun 4.30pm-midnight

Phone: +44 28 7126 9127

Badger's Bar and Restaurant

This comfortable Victorian-style venue is a popular local meeting spot and the ideal place to collapse into after a long day. The pub is family-friendly, and offers a varied menu of European, Chinese, Mexican, and Indian dishes. Try the steak and Guinness pie.

Photo: Joshua Resnick/Shutterstock.com
Address: 16-18 Orchard Street, Derry
Phone: +44 28 71363306

Sandino's

Dedicated politically and culturally to Latin American revolutionaries, Sandino's is a cosmopolitan haven. An excellent venue for live music, Sandino's also holds themed nights (80s and 90s motives are especially popular) and pub quizzes every once in a while.

Photo: thanosquest/Shutterstock.com
Address: Water Street, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7130 9297
Internet: www.sandinoscafebar.com

The Metro

This is one of the city's liveliest and most atmospheric bars. With cheap drinks, great pub food and a DJ most nights (live music shows sometimes), it is definitely a good place for a pint or two. Come on Monday night and enjoy special deals on cocktails.

Photo: Nejron Photo/Shutterstock.com
Address: 3-4 Bank Place, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7126 7401

Grand Central Bar

Grand Central Bar might not be too grand in size, but surely has a larger-than-life personality: it tends to get quite busy in the evenings with both locals and tourists enjoying a drink or two, or taking part in the pub quizzes conducted here weekly. Some food options are also available.

Photo: Domakhina Mariia/Shutterstock.com
Address: 27 Strand Road, Derry
Phone: +44 28 7126 7826

The Bentley

The Bentley Bar, Steakhouse & Wine Bar is an all-in one establishment with an area fit for watching live football broadcasts as well as a top-floor terrace for a quieter dining experience. Food is of high quality, with steaks, seafood and desserts on the menu.

Photo: JM Travel Photography/Shutterstock.com
Address: 3-5 Market Street, Derry
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 11am-1:30am, Sun 11am-midnight
Phone: +44 28 7137 1665

Granny Annie's

Granny Annie's is a popular local pub with a welcoming attitude to locals and visitors alike. Party vibes are on every night, beer flows endlessly and live bands make frequent appearances. The interior is tastefully crafted, and table service is attentive.

Photo: Arina P Habich/Shutterstock.com

Address: 27-31 Waterloo Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Sat noon-1.30am, Sun noon-1am

Phone: +44 28 7127 1738

SHOPPING

Ollyy/Shutterstock.com

Derry is an important commercial centre for the surrounding area, with something to suit every taste and every pocket, all within a small and accessible downtown. Foyleside Shopping Centre and Richmond Center are two larger shopping locations in the city, which is dotted with smaller stores and boutiques throughout. High-quality crafts and souvenirs can be found in the unique craft village, just off Shipquay Street. London Street, beside St. Columb's Cathedral, is where most antiques and curios shops can be found. For food lovers, the Continental Market takes place on the first Saturday of every month on Foyle Street Square.

Foyleside Shopping Centre

The famous Foyleside Shopping Centre, one of the biggest in Northern Ireland, houses all the top high street stores, as well as many smaller shops and services. The centre is well-maintained, and contains a food court alongside a variety of shopping spots.

Photo: wavebreakmedia/Shutterstock.com

Address: Orchard Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Tue 9am-6pm, Wed-Fri 9am-9pm, Sat 9am-7pm, Sun 1pm-6pm

Phone: +44 28 7137 7575

Internet: www.foyleside.co.uk

Craft Village

The Derry Craft Village is an area within the city walls where a number of small shops and boutiques selling all manner of unique items are concentrated. It might just be the best place to stock up on gifts, knick-knacks, artisan jewelry and much more, all produced by local designers.

Photo: Robert Kneschke/Shutterstock.com

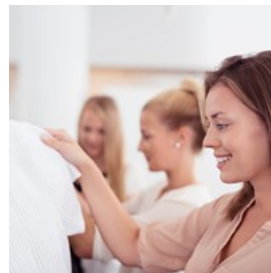

Address: Shipquay Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 9.30am-5.30pm, Sun 12.30pm-5.30pm

Phone: +44 28 7137 4774

Internet: www.facebook.com/DerryDesignerMakers

Richmond Centre

Along with Foyleside, Richmond is another large shopping center in Derry. Centrally located, it houses 40 different boutiques, among which are some major high street names. Apart from store, there are a couple of beauty salons, eateries and an ice cream shop.

Photo: racorn/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ferryquay Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 0525

Internet: www.richmondcentre.co.uk

Bedlam Market

For those interested in retro/vintage items, a visit to Bedlam might be worth the time. Several retailers run stands inside a large space converted into an indoor market, and sell old household items, accessories, various antiques and even military memorabilia.

Photo: ChiccoDodiFC/Shutterstock.com

Address: 10-16 Pump Street, Derry

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-5.30pm

Phone: +44 7563 330171

Internet: www.bedlamantiques.com

Checkpoint Charlie

At Checkpoint Charlie, it's all about the city of Derry - various souvenirs, quirky and artisan items, gifts and other memorabilia. Collectors may even get their passport stamped with a stamp of "Free Derry" to keep as memory of the visit - simply ask the owner.

Photo: The Bogside Artists(image cropped)

Address: 35 Waterloo Street, Derry

Phone: +44 7540 431721

Whatnot

Whatnot has a wonderfully intriguing selection of jewellery, antiques, collectables and curios items. The owner, who has been in the business for over 3 decades, has an eclectic taste which reflects in the array of items - also available to browse through in the online catalogue.

Photo: Lighthunter/Shutterstock.com

Address: 22 Bishop Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7128 8333

Internet: www.thewhatnot.co.uk

The Donegal Shop

For traditional Irish items, stop by this family-run store in Shipquay Street and browse through beautiful, high-quality fabrics (linen, cashmere, silks, etc.), clothing, accessories, traditional Celtic jewelry (silver, gold & freshwater pearls), pottery, souvenirs and more.

Photo: Wendy:(image cropped)

Address: 8 Shipquay Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 6928

Cowley Cooper Fine Art

The Cowley Cooper Gallery (which took over the McGilloway Gallery) showcases the work of several dozen Irish artists - paintings and sculpture, which are available for purchase. The shop serves as a tiny art gallery, and is worth a visit even if to only look around.

Photo: Thampapon/Shutterstock.com

Address: 10-16 Pump Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7136 0046

TOURIST INFORMATION

Iryna Rasko/Shutterstock.com

The City of Derry Airport

The City of Derry Airport is located 8 miles from Derry City Centre. Taxis are the quickest and most reliable way to get to and from the airport and can be found outside the airport terminal.

Connecting bus services are available to and from the airport at various times each day and leave passengers at the Ulsterbus Depot, Foyle Street, Derry City Centre. The journey to Derry City Centre takes about 30 minutes.

The AIRporter service operates six times per day to and from the AIRporter's City Centre base at the Quayside Shopping Centre. It is advisable to make a reservation. Reservations are free, guarantee a seat and you only pay on the day you travel.

You can also buy your ticket directly from the driver on board the coach on most services.

Photo: Juan Garces

Phone: +44 28 7126 2261 / +44 28 71 269 996

Internet: www.cityofderryairport.com/www.translink.co.uk/www.airporter.co.uk

Public Transport

Derry is a small city and can be covered on foot in a short space of time. The main bus station is located at Foyle Street in the city centre and Ulsterbus runs a bus service within the city.

The train station is located at Duke Street in the Waterside area of the city and is served by the Belfast to Derry service.

Photo: Pierre-Luc Auclair

Address: 24 Foyle Street, Derry

Phone: +44 28 7126 2621

Internet: www.translink.co.uk

Taxi

Derry Taxi Association also offers tours of local murals and historic buildings. Bases located on Foyle Street and William Street. +44 28

7126 0247

www.derrytaxi.ie

Ace Cabs has 24 hour service, including coach and airport transfers

+44 28 7126 2020

Photo: ArrivalGuides

Post Office

Mail boxes can be found throughout the city and are red in color. Head Office Custom House Street, Derry Bishop Street, Derry +44 28

7126 0620

Photo: Andy Fuchs

Pharmacy

Bradleys Pharmacy 36
William Street, Derry +44
28 7126 2838 Boots
Pharmacy 47 Great James
Street, Derry +44 28
7126 7399

Photo: Gemma Garner

Telephone

Country code: +44 Area
code: 28

Photo: Jardson Almeida

Electricity

230-240 V, 50 Hz

Photo: Stirling Tschan

Population

107,000

Currency

1 pound £ = 100 pence

Opening hours

City Centre Shops generally open Mon- Sat 09.00-17.30 and Thurs and Friday until 21.00. In the summer, some shops are open on Sunday.

Internet

www.derryjournal.com
www.irishnews.com

Newspapers

Derry Journal

Irish News

Emergency numbers

Police, Fire and Ambulance: 999

Tourist information

Derry Visitor and Convention Bureau
44 Foyle Street
Tel: +44 28 7137 7577
Opening hours:
Mon-Fri 9am-5pm, Sat 10am-5pm

Seasonal variations:

May & Jun, Sun 10am-4pm
July-Sept, Mon-Fri 9am-7pm, Sat 10am-6pm, Sun
10am-5pm

Abbey Street	B2	Eastway	A2	Miller Street	B3
Abercorn Road	B3	Ebrington Park	D1	Mourne Drive	D3 D4
Aberfoyle Terrace	B1	Elmwood Road	A3	Nailor's Row	B3
Academy Road	A1 B1	Emerson Street	D2 D3	Northland Crescent	B1
Anderson Crescent	D4	Eskaheen View	C4	Northland Drive	B1
Anne Street	A4	Ewing Street	B3 B4	Northland Road	B1
Ardilea Park	D4	Fahan Street	B2 B3	Nualamont Drive	A3
Argyle Street	B1	Ferguson Street	B3	Oakfield Road	A2
Argyle Terrace	B1	Fountain Hill	C3 C4	Orchard Street	B3 C3
Asylum Road	B2	Foxhill	B4	Osborne Street	A1
Bann Drive	D3 D4	Foyle Embankment	C2 C3	Park Avenue	A1
Bard's Hill	C4	Foyle Road	A4 B3 B4 C3	Patrick Street	B2
Barrack Street	B3	Foyle Street	C3	Primrose Street	C3 D3
Beechwood Avenue	A2	Glen Road	A1	Quarry Street	A4
Benvardeen Avenue	C3 D3	Glendermott Road	D3	Queen Street	B2
Bishop Street Within	B3	Good Sheperds Glen	D3	Queens Quay	B2
Bishop Street Without	A4 B3	Grafton Street	A1	Rock Road	B1
Bligh's Lane	A3	Great James Street	B2	Rosemount Avenue	A1
Bond's Hill	C3	Heron Way	D2	Rosemount Gardens	A1 A2
Bond's Street	D2	Hinton Park	D2	Rossbay	D1
Brandywell Road	A3	Iona Terrace	D2	Rossville Street	B2
Browning Drive	C2	Irish Street	D4	Roulston Avenue	D2
Cable Street	A3	Ivy Terrace	B3	Shepherds Glen	D3
Carlisle Road	B3	John Street	B3 C3	Spencer Road	C3
Chapel Road	C3	Kennedy Street	B3	St Columba's Walk	A3 B3
Clarendon Street	B2	King Street	C2	St Columb's Road	D2
Clooney Park East	D2	Knockdara Park	C3 D3	Stanley's Walk	A3
Clooney Park West	D2	Knockwellan Park	D4	Strabane Old Road	C4
Clooney Terrace	C2 C3	Lapwing Way	D2 D3	Strand Road	B2
College Avenue	B1	Lawrence Hill	B1	The Fountain	B3
Corrody Road	C4	Lecky Road	A3 B3	Trench Road	D4
Cravigavon Bridge	C3	Limavady Road	D2	Victoria Gate	B4
Creggan Road	A2	London Street	B3	Victoria Road	B4
Deburgh Terrace	A2 B1	Lone Moor Road	A3	Wapping Lane	B3
Demesne Avenue	A2	Magazine Street	B2 B3	Waterloo Street	B2
Dennet Gardens	D3	Market Street	B3	Waterside Link	C3
Dervock Place	D3	Marlborough Road	A2	Westend Park	A2
Duke Street	C3 C4	Marlborough Street	A2	Westland Avenue	A2
Dunfield Terrace	C4	Maureen Avenue	B3	Westland Street	A2 B3
Dungiven Road	D3	May Street	D2	William Street	B2