

Photo: Balate Dorin/shutterstock

Paul Cowan/Shutterstock.com

Corfu, set in the turquoise Ionian Sea, is often considered the most beautiful of the Greek islands. Wildflowers, cypress and olive trees colour the landscape, complementing pale sandy beaches. The west coast charms with small coves framed by cliffs and trees, while the north reveals a rugged coastline where clear waters carve pebbled bays. Explore ancient ruins, savour delicious Greek cuisine, and enjoy the splendour of this unforgettable island.

Galyna Andrushko/Shutterstock.com

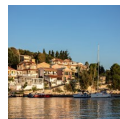

kostasgr/Shutterstock.com

Featured

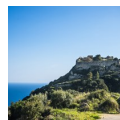

Museum of Asian Art

Housed in a former stateroom, within the Palace of St Michael and St George,...

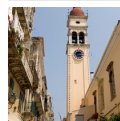

Kassiopi

Located 36 kilometres to the North East of Corfu town, the traditional fishi...

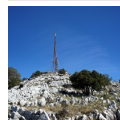

Castle of Angels

The Castle of Angels (Angelokastro) is a Byzantine castle set on a rocky mou...

Holy Church of Saint Spyridon

Religion is a very important part of life in Corfu — in the Old Town alone y...

Mount Pantokrator

With an elevation of 906 metres, Mount Pantokrator is the highest mountain o...

Top 5

Old Perithia

Situated in the North East corner of the island, Old Perithia is an abandone...

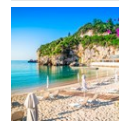

Old Fortress

The Old Fortress (Palaio Frourio), situated on Corfu's eastern side, spans t...

New Venetian Fortress

The New Venetian Fortress is an old military complex loaded with interesting...

Paleokastritsa

Nestled in northwestern Corfu, Paleokastritsa is one of the island's most ch...

Canal d'Amour

Sidari represents the most developed tourist area on the north coast of Corf...

THE ISLAND

DaLiu/shutterstock

The origins of Corfu can be traced back to prehistoric times when it was first inhabited. Throughout antiquity, it was a prominent Greek colony, followed by Roman rule during the 2nd century BC. In the Byzantine era, Corfu thrived as an important trade and cultural hub. However, it was the Venetians who left a lasting mark on the island, fortifying it and building iconic structures like the Old Fortress. The French and British also took turns in controlling the island during various periods. In the 19th century, Corfu finally became part of modern Greece.

The name Corfu (Kèrkyra) names not only the island but also its capital, which is a beautiful, sophisticated and charming town. It is also one of the most elegant island capitals in the whole of Greece, as it was modernised for the 1994 EU summit.

Its rich history, diverse architecture, and stunning natural beauty continue to enchant visitors from around the world, making it a beloved destination for those seeking a blend of historical and contemporary experiences.

DO & SEE

Dragomir Nikolov/Shutterstock.com

Corfu is considered by many to be the most beautiful of all the Greek islands. It's the greenest of the Ionian Islands and probably also the best known. You'll be fascinated by a beguiling landscape of wildflowers, cypress trees, olive trees, and luxurious sandy beaches.

Old Perithia

Situated in the North East corner of the island, Old Perithia is an abandoned village steeped in history, dating back to the 14th century.

Once home to a vibrant farming community, this charming village offers an inviting space for exploration, with its medieval stone houses and churches. It's also a great place to unwind and savour the moment, relishing a delightful drink at one of the local tavernas.

Photo: Szymon Mucha/Shutterstock.com

Address: Old Perithia, Corfu

Internet: old-perithia.com/

Old Fortress

The Old Fortress (Palaio Frourio), situated on Corfu's eastern side, spans the promontory once home to the ancient town, dating back to Byzantine times. Built by the Venetians, it stands as a symbol of their dominance in the Ionian Sea and remains a prominent landmark of the island. Today, visitors are invited to explore its historic grounds and discover the fascinating areas within.

Photo: Anna Fevrileva/Shutterstock.com

Address: Palaio Frourio, Corfu

Internet: odysseus.culture.gr/h/3/eh355.jsp?obj_id=954

More Info: Located opposite the Liston on the Esplanade

New Venetian Fortress

The New Venetian Fortress is an old military complex loaded with interesting tunnels, cellars, and dungeons. It provides excellent views of the Old Town and the bay. Look out for the two lions of St Mark and the Venetians' inscriptions on the bastion walls above.

Photo: markara/Shutterstock.com

Address: Eleftherios Venizelos 13, Corfu

Opening hours: Wed-Mon 8:30am-3:30pm, Tue closed

Internet: odysseus.culture.gr/h/2/eh255.jsp?obj_id=27065

Paleokastritsa

Nestled in northwestern Corfu, Paleokastritsa is one of the island's most cherished beauty spots, offering a perfect vantage point to witness the sunset. Don't miss the opportunity to admire the 17th-century monastery and its famous "Tree of Life" carving within. With historical significance intertwined in its landscape, Corfu has been suggested as the mythical island of the Phaeacians, and the bay of Palaiokastritsa as the very place where Odysseus first encountered Nausicaa.

Photo: Neirfy/Shutterstock

Address: Paleokastritsa, Corfu

Canal d'Amour

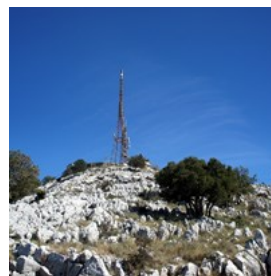

Sidari represents the most developed tourist area on the north coast of Corfu and offers nice beaches. It is also known for the channel of love, Canal d'Amour, a series of rock formations which create small bays and a kind of channel with crystal clear water. According to the legend, lovers who swim into the channel together will love each other forever.

Photo: trabantos/Shutterstock

Address: Canal d'Amour, Sidari, Corfu

Mount Pantokrator

With an elevation of 906 metres, Mount Pantokrator is the highest mountain on the island and offers extraordinary and stunning views of Corfu, as well as Albania, situated a short distance from the island. At the top of the mountain, you'll find a café and a monastery.

Photo: VVlasovs/Shutterstock.com

Address: Mount Pantokrator, Corfu

Achilleion Palace

This spectacular building, which is located in the village of Gastouri, was originally built in 1890 as a summer retreat for the Empress Elisabeth of Austria, also known as Sisi. It boasts several beautiful Greek sculptures and a wonderful garden, as well as spectacular terrace views.

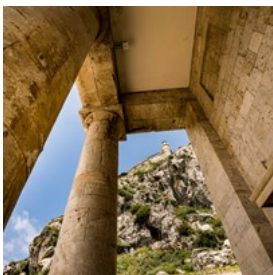

Photo: ppart/Shutterstock.com

Address: Achilleion Palace, Gastouri, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 056210

Internet: achillion-corfu.gr/?lang=en

Archaeological Museum

The museum showcases an extensive collection spanning from the Prehistoric to Hellenistic eras, featuring bronze and marble statues, funeral offerings, ancient coins, clay pottery, golden jewellery, and fragments from ancient temples. Among the notable exhibits is the awe-inspiring Medusa pediment from the temple of Artemis, dating back to 585 BC. Additionally, visitors can marvel at the stone lion of Menecrates, a likely funeral offering to the renowned politician, a limestone pediment from the temple of Dionysus, 13 identical small statues of goddess Artemis, and a marble torso of Apollo.

Photo: Jose Pardos/Shutterstock

Address: Vrela Armeni 1, Corfu

Opening hours: Wed-Mon 8:30am-3:30pm, Tue closed

Phone: +30 2661 030680

Internet: archaeologicalmuseums.gr/en

Kassiopi

Located 36 kilometres to the North East of Corfu town, the traditional fishing village of Kassiopi beckons with its idyllic setting, surrounded by verdant hills. Kassiopi offers a range of activities for visitors, from exploring the intriguing ancient fortress to strolling through picturesque harbours and basking on the many easily accessible beaches that dot its shoreline.

Photo: Szymon Mucha/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kassiopi, Corfu

Holy Church of Saint Spyridon

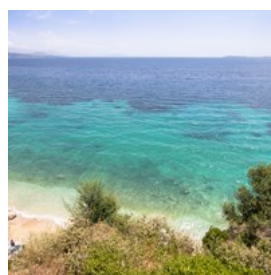

Religion is a very important part of life in Corfu — in the Old Town alone you'll find about twenty churches. Built in 1590, the Holy Church of Saint Spyridon is a typical example of the ecclesiastical architecture of the Ionian Islands in Greece. Saint Spiridon, the patron of Corfu, was born, lived, and died in this city.

Photo: Dumitrescu Ciprian-Florin/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agiou Spiridonos 32, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 7am-8pm

Barbati Beach

Barbati Beach is a pebbled beach with crystal clear water. It is very popular but it does require some hiking up and downhill to reach.

Photo: D.Bond/Shutterstock.com

Address: Barbati Beach, Corfu

Castle of Angels

The Castle of Angels (Angelokastro) is a Byzantine castle set on a rocky mountain hilltop and is the perfect place from which to enjoy inspiring views of the island.

Photo: sianstock/Shutterstock.com

Address: Angelokastro, Corfu

Corfu Gallery

Situated in the heart of Corfu Town, on the historic Nikiforou Theotoki Street, Corfu Gallery takes immense pride in promoting Greek art by showcasing a diverse array of artists hailing from Corfu and all over Greece. The collection features an eclectic mix of paintings, sculptures, and art objects from esteemed award-winning artists with global recognition to promising newcomers. With each visit, you'll discover the vibrant spirit of Greek art as its collection is constantly being renewed.

Photo: sabthai/Shutterstock.com

Address: Nikiforou Theotoki 72, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 025796

Internet: corfugallery.com

Email: info@corfugallery.com

Museum of Asian Art

Housed in a former stateroom, within the Palace of St Michael and St George, the Museum of Asian Art — the only one of its kind in Greece

— showcases remarkable collections of Chinese,

Japanese, and Indian art, along with various other exquisite artistic treasures from that continent. Visitors are invited to embark on a fascinating journey through the diverse and enchanting cultures of Asia, all under one roof.

Photo: Andrew Mayovskyy/Shutterstock.com

Address: Palea Anaktora, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 8am–8pm

Phone: +30 2661 030443

Internet: matk.gr

British Cemetery

A former military cemetery from 1855 where you can see several graves from both the First and Second World Wars. From late February to the beginning of June, an impressive orchid garden blooms, adding beauty to this solemn place.

Photo: Jeanette Dietl/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kolokotroni 8, Corfu

Opening hours: Tue–Sun 9am–6pm, Mon closed

Internet: cwgc.org/visit-us/find-cemeteries-memorials/cemetery-details/69005/corfu-british-cemetery/

DINING

apolonia/Shutterstock.com

Plateia Dimarchiou (Town Hall Square) and Kapodistriou Street host some of Corfu's best restaurants, each offering a delectable blend of cuisines influenced by various cultures. Notably, Italian cuisine has left a significant impact on the local dishes. Delight your taste buds with must-try specialities such as the soffrito, which consists of aromatic ingredients cut into small pieces and sautéed or braised in cooking oil for a long period of time over low heat. Another delicious option is the pastitsada, a Greek delight consisting of pasta topped with meat, slow-braised in a zesty tomato-based sauce. For seafood enthusiasts, the bourdeto is a true gem, featuring fish cooked to perfection with a medley of red sweet and hot spicy peppers and onions.

Mouragia

Mouragia is a lovely traditional Greek restaurant that takes pride in serving homemade delights.

Indulge in generous portions of authentic Greek cuisine, lovingly prepared with time-honoured recipes. It's no wonder why Mouragia has earned its popularity among the locals — a surefire sign of exceptional food and warm hospitality.

Photo: scarscarc/Shutterstock.com

Address: Arseniou 15, Corfu

Internet: katestravelexperience.eu/mouragia-house-greece?correlationID=ce555f65-1da4-4dc7-8e61-e066bf515b0f

Rex

Rex is claimed to be one of the best restaurants in town. The menu varies from typical Greek cuisine to more northern European. Among the specialities of the house are several grill-cooked meals.

Photo: Kzenon/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kapodistriou 66, Corfu

Opening hours: Mon-Sat noon-midnight, Sun 6pm-midnight

Phone: +30 2661 039649

Internet: rexrestaurant.gr

Email: rex1932@otenet.gr

Avli

Set against the picturesque backdrop of Garitsa Bay, one of the most beautiful spots of Corfu Town, Avli is a laid-back restaurant featuring a leafy terrace with mesmerising sea views. Indulge in a culinary journey with a variety of regional dishes, including flavorful meze platters, fresh salads, as well as meat and seafood specialities. To complement your meal, savour the delightful taste of light and aromatic tsipouro, ouzo, or a fine selection of wines.

Photo: fivepointsix/Shutterstock.com

Address: Alkiviadou Dari 3, Garitsa, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily noon-11:30pm

Phone: +30 2661 031291

Internet: www.avlicorfu.com

Email: info@avlicorfu.com

Telesilla Hotel Restaurant

At Telesilla Hotel, the poolside restaurant boasts an extensive array of tasty delights, representing both the rich local flavours and international culinary treasures. Accompanied by a carefully curated wine selection, it promises to introduce you to the wonders of Corfiot cuisine. Among their renowned dishes, the must-try highlight is the famous Telesilla Lamp, a culinary masterpiece that you simply cannot miss during your visit to Corfu.

Photo: rawf8/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kontokali, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 091822

Internet: hoteltelesilla.com

More Info: Next to Gouvia Marina

Jimmy's Restaurant

Withing the charming village of Pelekas, Jimmy's Restaurant is a must-visit for food enthusiasts and casual travellers alike. Indulge in the flavorful delights of high-quality Greek and Corfiot cuisine, with their Bourdeto, a Corfu special spicy fish dish, coming highly recommended. At Jimmy's, the portions are generous and the prices are fair, plus they cater to all tastes offering vegetarian options like risotto and moussaka. Adding to the restaurant's enchanting ambience is an abundance of colourful flowers that adorn the building.

Photo: FoodKub/Shutterstock.com

Address: Pelekas, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 094284

Internet: www.instagram.com/jimmypensionrestaurant

Trilogia Plous

At one of Kassiopi's most beautiful locations, you'll discover Trilogia Plous, a culinary gem offering a blend of modern Greek cuisine and Mediterranean dishes. Situated in a romantic atmosphere, the restaurant sets the stage for an intimate and delightful dining experience. The menu showcases a creative fusion of traditional Greek flavours with a contemporary twist, tantalizing your taste buds with every bite.

Photo: Danienarin/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kassiopi, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 10am-11pm

Phone: +30 2663 081589

Internet: trilogiaplous.com

Sebastian's Taverna

Enjoy the flavours and authentic feeling of Greece at this taverna with over 35 years of history. Olives and olive oil come from their own local groves, wine is homemade, and if you like what you eat and want to try it at home you can find the recipes on their website.

Photo: Africa Studio/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agios Gordios, Sinarades, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 8:30am-11:30am / 6pm-11:30pm

Phone: +30 694 577 0322

Internet: sebastians-corfu.com

Email: info@sebastians-taverna.gr

Taverna Malibu

At Taverna Malibu, indulge in the delights of Greek cuisine, featuring an array of local specialties and a selection of fresh fish and seafood. Nestled on the coast, the taverna offers an astonishing view of the sparkling sea, setting the stage for an unforgettable dining experience.

Photo: KieferPix/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agios Georgios, Corfu

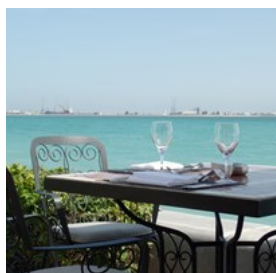

Opening hours: Daily 11am-11pm

Phone: +30 2662 052998

Internet: corfu-malibu.gr

Email: info@corfu-malibu.gr

Vitamins Taverna

If you're eager to savour the authentic specialties from Corfu, this is the place to be. Their menu boasts a wide array of tasty dishes, perfectly complemented by an extensive selection of local wines that will elevate your dining experience. As you relish the flavours of Corfu, you'll be treated to an astonishing view from their vantage point high above the open sea.

Photo: traveladdict/Shutterstock.com

Address: Nissaki 490 83, Corfu

Phone: +30 26630 91278

Internet: instagram.com/vitamins_taverna

Email: vitamins@otenet.gr

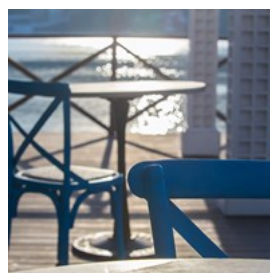

CAFÉS

Elena Pavlovich/Shutterstock.com

Corfu town has a plethora of cafés and most of them are lined along the main pedestrian street Listón. A true Corfu experience is to indulge in people-watching while you are enjoying your frappé.

En Plo

En Plo is a stunning destination in Corfu, perfect for indulging in a meal or drink, especially as the sun sets. With a serene seaside location, it exudes a relaxing ambience that envelops the entire space. From the café, you can revel in the incredible view of the sea and enjoy the gentle breeze, offering a welcome escape from the heat of summer days.

Photo: Mikbiz/Shutterstock.com

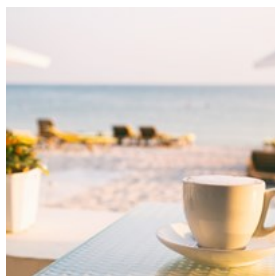

Address: Agios Nikolaos Gate, Faliraki, Corfu

Phone: +30 26610 81813

Internet: enplocorfu.com/

Email: contact@enplocorfu.com

Akrotiri Cafe

In North-West Corfu lies this café/bar at the top of the cape between Arillas Beach and Agios Stefanos Beach. With a stunning view of the ocean, this makes it the ideal setting to savour a cup of coffee, cakes, ice cream, and sandwiches. Or why not enjoy a cocktail while watching the sunset?

Photo: Alexander Lukatskiy/Shutterstock.com

Address: San Stefanos, Corfu

Phone: +30 693 752 2710

Internet: akrotiri-cafe.com

Mikro Café

Part terrace, part street, part staircase, Mikro Café is one of the more architecturally improvised spots in Corfu Old Town, and all the better for it. A recently added indoor space complements the original outdoor setup, which has the layered, organic feel of somewhere that has grown into itself over time. The menu leans towards the modern end, with matcha alongside the coffee options. The terrace is a genuine respite from the old town's foot traffic, but you can expect it to fill quickly at peak times, so arrive early if you want a spot outside.

Photo: Nemo1963/shutterstock

Address: Themistokleous Kotardou 42, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 031009

Internet: www.instagram.com/mikrocafe_corfu

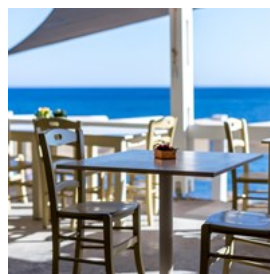

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Calin Stan/Shutterstock.com

Corfu Town and the island as such have plenty to offer when it comes to nightlife. Some of the nicest bars on the island are located in the town centre and most of the nightlife action on the island is on Corfu's self-proclaimed disco strip which lies only a couple of kilometres north of the town centre.

Cavalieri Roof Garden

Open from late May to early October, Cavalieri Roof Garden offers a limited-time opportunity not to be missed when in Corfu. Enjoy enticing cocktails amidst the island's awe-inspiring vistas at this vibrant rooftop venue at the Cavalieri Hotel.

Photo: garr_333/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kapodistriou 4, Corfu

Opening hours: Open seasonally

Phone: +30 2661 039041

Internet: cavalieriroofgarden.com/

Email: info@cavalieriroofgarden.com

Edem Beach Nightclub

Nestled right on the shore of Dassia Beach, Edem Beach Club is a renowned gem that has been voted into the top ten beach bars/clubs in all of Greece. In the afternoon, they serve coffee and snacks, and as the day unfolds into the evening, Edem transforms itself into a vibrant club where international DJs ignite the dance floor for proper clubbers.

Photo: Pressmaster/Shutterstock.com

Address: Dassia, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 11am-5am

Phone: +30 2661 093013

Internet: edemclub.com

Email: info@edemclub.com

Madison Garden Bar

Nestled at the heart of Agios Gordio, Madison Garden is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered. This stylish and classy restaurant and cocktail bar boasts an inventive menu with the chef's unique twist on some Greek classics along with expertly-crafted cocktails. Under the shadow of vines and accompanied by the soothing sounds of water features from the restaurant's fountain, Madison Garden provides the perfect ambience for a delightful night out.

Photo: ds46/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agios Gordios, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 2:30pm-2:30am

Phone: +30 2661 053208

Internet: madisoncorfu.gr

The Lemon Tree

The Lemon Tree is a quirky cocktail bar offering unique drinks, crafted with passion and creativity, plus great music and an equally amazing ambience. Prepare to be mesmerised by the interesting illumination that surrounds you. At The Lemon Tree, the tables light up, the menu is fluorescent, and the bar itself becomes a captivating spectacle of lights.

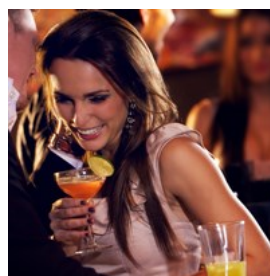

Photo: stdesign/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agios Gordios, Corfu

Phone: +30 693 029 0993

Email: thanosvasilakis@gmail.com

O2 Old School Rock Bar

For the perfect nightcap, O2 Old School Rock Bar is the go-to destination, where the melodies of rock and blues, fantastic cocktails, and billiards combine to create a memorable experience worth reliving.

Photo: Jacob Lund/Shutterstock.com

Address: Gouvia, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 6pm-3am

Phone: +30 2661 090262

Email: o2corfu@otenet.gr

Unlimit Cocktail Bar

Situated in the village of Palaiokastritsa, Unlimit is a cosy and laid-back bar offering a diverse range of drinks, from molecular creations with dry ice to timeless classics. As you indulge in their delightful concoctions, they'll also treat you to a small treat in the form of potato chips with each drink, adding a touch of warmth and hospitality to your experience.

Photo: Arina P Habich/Shutterstock.com

Address: Palaioikastritsa, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 5pm-4am

Phone: +30 698 730 4196

Internet: instagram.com/unlimit_cocktail_bar

Robin's Nest

Robin's Nest is a quirky and lively bar that bursts with vibrant colours and exudes a fun-loving atmosphere. The place is known for serving up great cocktails and emanates a warm and welcoming vibe, making it an ideal spot to unwind with friends. What sets this bar apart is its unique decor — guests are encouraged to bring their own rocks, paint them creatively, and proudly display their artwork on the walls, adding a personal touch to the ambiance. At Robin's Nest, you're not just a customer; you're part of a creative and joyous community that makes every visit an unforgettable experience.

Photo: Neiron Photo/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agios Gordios, Corfu

Opening hours: Mon 9am-2:30am, Tue-Sun 7pm-2:30am

Phone: +30 693 837 1030

Castaway Beach Bar

Along the scenic shoreline, Castaway Beach Bar is a charming little beachside gem. During the day, it offers a delightful open-air setting with sun loungers, perfectly positioned at the west end of the beach, where Canal d'Amour meets the sea. As the sun sets, the ambiance transforms into a vibrant disco bar, courtesy of the talented resident DJ who spins groovy tunes. It's the ideal spot to watch the mesmerising sunset while being serenaded by the soothing sound of crashing waves.

Photo: SandraY/Shutterstock.com

Address: Sidari, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 9am-11pm

Phone: +30 697 250 2648

Malibu Summer

If you're in search of the ideal beach hang-out, look no further than Malibu Summer Beach Club. Nestled in a prime location along the glistening shoreline, this beach club offers a mesmerising setting, which is perfectly complemented by its diverse selection of snacks, meals, and drinks. And you get to enjoy it all on their comfortable sunbeds while listening to relaxing lounge music.

Photo: millerjohneric/Shutterstock.com

Address: Dassia Beach, Dassia, Corfu

Opening hours: Daily 9am-9pm

Phone: +30 2661 093801

Internet: malibucorfu.com/

SHOPPING

TimXez/Shutterstock.com

Corfu boasts a diverse array of shops, from small gift and souvenir stores to exclusive Italian designer boutiques, all tucked away along its cobbled streets and alleys. While shopping, the best deals await on leather goods, jewellery, gold, silver, and fur coats, but it's important to seek out reputable jewellers for authentic purchases.

The region surrounding the Ionian Sea showcases its renowned ceramic work, beautifully displayed in shop windows and available as souvenirs throughout the town. Don't miss the chance to explore the fascinating collection of hand-woven carpets, lace and cotton tablecloths, napkins, skirts, and blouses that Corfu offers, along with popular Aegean Island-made white stitched sweaters.

Be sure to grab delectable Greek pastries to bring back home, and if you're savvy at negotiation, you may find even better bargains, particularly toward the end of the tourist season.

Paramythia Traditional Cheeses

Paramythia is the ideal destination for traditional products from Corfu, offering a diverse range of Greek and Corfiot delicacies. Specialising in cheese, they also provide a variety of cured meats, handmade pasta, condiments, spices, Greek yoghurt, butter, ice cream, olive oil, pastries, herbal teas, and other locally sourced seasonal produce.

Photo: Jessi et Nono/Shutterstock.com

Address: Velissariou 12, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 081 832

Email: paradosiakatyriaparamythias@gmail.com

The Touristic Market of Corfu Old Town

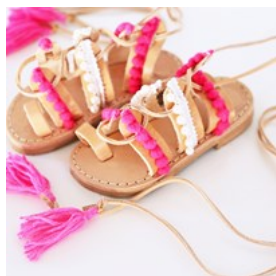

The market area of Corfu Old Town is a warren of narrow, stone-paved alleys known as kantounia, lined with craft shops, food stalls, and characterful Venetian-era buildings. Near the New Fortress, daily fresh produce trading keeps things grounded amid the souvenir lanes. Look out for olive wood products among the tourist staples; there is no fast food in sight. Plenty of cafes, bars, and ice cream stops offer a welcome break when the alleys start to blur into one another. The architecture alone makes it worth getting pleasantly lost in.

Photo: Tsuguliev/shutterstock

Address: Agiou Spiridonos, Corfu

Corfu Sandals

With over 130 designs in genuine Greek leather, Corfu Sandals does exactly what it says. All handmade and built to last, the sandals span styles ranging from ancient Greek-inspired to minimalist, with options for men, women, and children. Prices are among the most competitive in town, which may explain why customers routinely walk out with multiple pairs. The two stores are compact, but the staff are helpful and clearly know their product well.

Photo: photo stella/shutterstock

Address: Filellinon 6, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 037 768

Internet: www.corfusandals.com/en

TOURIST INFORMATION

TOP67/Shutterstock.com

Corfu International Airport "Ioannis Kapodistrias" (CFU)

Corfu International Airport "Ioannis Kapodistrias" (CFU) is located three kilometres south of Corfu Town.

Outside the terminal, bus Line 15 connects the airport to the city centre and the Intercity Bus Station (KTEL), where you can transfer to destinations all over the island. Alternatively, taxis are readily available just outside the terminal building.

Photo: Aerial-motion/Shutterstock

Address: Ioannis Kapodistrias International Airport, Corfu

Phone: +30 2661 089602

Internet: www.cfu-airport.gr/en

Passport & Visa

Citizens of European Union (EU) and European Economic Area (EEA) countries do not need a visa to enter Greece, only a valid ID. Many other countries, including the United Kingdom, United States, Canada, United Arab Emirates, Australia, and New Zealand, benefit from visa-free entry for short stays of up to 90 days within a 180-day period.

Visitors from visa-exempt countries must hold a valid passport and, starting in late 2026, will need to apply for an ETIAS (European Travel Information and Authorisation System) authorisation online before travelling.

For those requiring a visa, such as travellers from some Middle-East, African or Asian nations, a Schengen visa must be obtained prior to arrival. All travellers should ensure their passport is valid for at least three months beyond their intended stay.

Photo: KKulikov/shutterstock

Internet: https://home-affairs.ec.europa.eu/policies/schengen/visa-policy_en

Best Time to Visit

The best time to visit the island of Corfu is during the spring (April to early June) and autumn (September to October).

During these months, the weather is pleasant with warm temperatures and less humidity compared to the peak summer months.

Spring brings blooming flowers and lush landscapes, while autumn showcases vibrant colours and is ideal for outdoor activities. Also, visiting during these shoulder seasons allows you to avoid the large crowds present during the summer peak. However, if you prefer hot weather and bustling beach scenes, the summer months of July and August are the peak tourist season, but it can get quite crowded and hot during this time.

Photo: CALIN STAN/Unsplash

Tourist Traps

The most common tourist trap on Corfu is overly-expensive taxi rides. Therefore, it's a good idea to insist that all fares are shown on the meter. Some restaurants overcharge on the bill so, it's generally a good idea to check your bill before you pay the amount requested.

Photo: Markus Spiske/unsplash

Public Transport

From central Corfu, there are buses that take you to different destinations on the island and they're reasonably reliable. The long-distance buses leave from the bus station, which is close to the New Port in Corfu Town and the local bus station is on Pleteia San Rocco. The green buses are the long-distance ones and the blue buses are local.

Photo: Reinaldo Kevin/unsplash

Internet: www.greenbuses.gr

Post

Postboxes on Corfu are yellow and stamps can be bought in shops and kiosks. You can find post offices in villages throughout the island.

Photo: Ali Bakhtiari/Unsplash

Address: Hellenic Post Office, Leoforos Alexandras 26, Corfu

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 7:30am-2:45pm, Sat & Sun closed

Phone: +30 2661 025544

Pharmacy

Pharmacies are open during shop hours, generally from 8am to 9pm, and there's always one pharmacy open in Corfu town at night and at weekends. Most resorts have their own pharmacy.

Photo: Dima Mukhin/Unsplash

Address: Pharmacy Ertos, Miltiadou Margariti 8, Corfu

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 8:30am-9pm, Sun closed

Phone: +30 2661 031992

Internet: pharmacure.gr

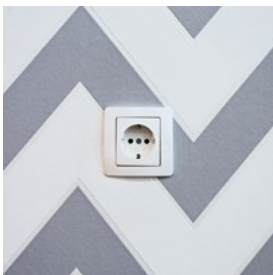

Telephone

Country code: +30 Area code: 2661

Photo: Miryam León/Unsplash

Electricity

Greece uses the Type F electrical plug with two round pins, the same as in many countries in Continental Europe. The standard voltage is 230 volts.

Photo: Neven Krcmarek/Unsplash

Population

39,846 (2026)

Currency

Euro: € 1 = 100 cents

Internet

visit.corfu.gr

Newspapers

Kathimerini: www.kathimerini.gr

To Vima: www.tovima.gr

Do not despair if you cannot read Greek language as day-old English newspapers are usually available from various newsstands on Corfu.

Emergency numbers

Ambulance: 166

Police: 100

Fire Brigade: 199

Tourist information

Municipal Tourist Information Office

Old Fortress of Corfu

+30 266 103 0241

tourism@corfu.gov.gr

Open Mon–Fri 8:30am–3pm, Sat & Sun closed

