ArrivalGuides
A SMARTVEL COMPANY

Phnom Penh

Photo: PlusONE/Shutterstock.com

Olesya Kuznetsova/Shutterstock.com

Kim Eang Eng/Unsplash

OlegD/Shutterstock.com

Situated at the crossroads of three great rivers – the Mekong, Tonle Sap, and Bassac – Phnom Penh is the heart of a country steeped in tradition, overflowing with rice paddies, jungles, and rural communities. Once a sleepy backwater, Phnom Penh, now, buzzes with commercial activity as the country develops after years of isolation. Old French colonial mansions stand alongside newly emerging designs, which make the city's mixed architecture and communities fascinating to explore.

Featured

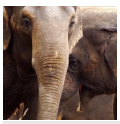

Yoga Phnom Penh
For all the Yogis and Yoginis out there, this is a must-visit. At this beaut...

Wat Ounalom
This temple is the headquarters of Cambodian Buddhism, and it's home to 350 ...

Independence Monument
This tall building is a symbol of Cambodia's freedom from France, gained in ...

Phnom Tamao Zoological Par...
This is the biggest zoo in Cambodia, and here you can see many different ani...

Tuol Sleng Museum
A former school known as S-21, this building became the hub of the Khmer Rou...

Top 5

Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda
Immerse yourself in beautifully manicured gardens, delightful royal abodes, ...

Wat Phnom
Wat Phnom is said to be the first pagoda in town, dating back to 1373. It is...

The Killing Fields & Choeu...
This field reminds its visitors of a time of brutal executions and torture. ...

National Museum of Cambodia
This red-stoned traditional royal Khmer building from the 1920s offers a gli...

Phnom Chisor Temple
About one hour's drive from the city, you can visit the ruins of the Phnom C...

THE CITY

Pj Go/Unsplash

Phnom Penh took its name from a legendary tale involving a woman called Penh, who is said to have discovered four Buddhas washed ashore by the great river.

Following French colonisation in 1869, which lasted until King Norodom Sihanouk declared independence in 1953, the city underwent significant urban development, marked by the construction of impressive villas and wide avenues that now define its city centre.

However, the vibrant atmosphere of the 1960s was abruptly disrupted on April 17, 1975, when the Khmer Rouge seized control of the country, causing Phnom Penh to empty almost overnight. After four years, Cambodians returned to rebuild their capital from a small riverside village into the bustling commercial hub it is today.

Despite its growth, Phnom Penh retains its unique charm as an unspoiled Asian gem, where cyclo drivers navigate through a sea of motorbikes, embodying the city's dynamic spirit.

DO & SEE

Tepikina Nastya / Shutterstock.com

Spend a day walking through the historical streets surrounding the Royal Palace, ride a tuk-tuk hopping from market to market, and end your day gazing at the shimmering lights reflecting off the Tonle Bassac. The city's life never ceases as the old and the new live alongside each other.

Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda

Immerse yourself in beautifully manicured gardens, delightful royal abodes, and the serene calm of this classic Khmer palace. The throne, used for coronation and important ceremonies, sits in a finely decorated room. At its side stands a small delightful ornate maisonette offered by Napoleon III to King Norodom. Walk across to the Silver Pagoda and observe the golden Buddha, encrusted with 9,584 diamonds, the largest one weighing 25 carats.

Please remember to dress a bit formally when visiting the Silver Pagoda—wear long trousers or a long skirt.

Photo: Xuanlu Wang/Shutterstock.com
Address: Samdach Sotheros Boulevard 3, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 7am–10am / 2:30pm–4:30pm
More Info: Entrance at the gate on Sothearos Boulevard, about 100 metres north of Street 240

Wat Phnom

Wat Phnom is said to be the first pagoda in town, dating back to 1373. It is located on a small hill and locals come here to pray for good luck. When visiting Wat Phnom, be aware that due to the site's popularity, there will be a number of beggars, street urchins and other vendors trying to gain your attention. Some may try to sell birds in cages and you pay to set the bird free as locals claim the birds are trained to return to their cage afterwards.

Photo: Suzi Kim/Unsplash
Address: Norodom Boulevard, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 7am–6:30pm

The Killing Fields & Choeung Ek Memorial

This field reminds its visitors of a time of brutal executions and torture. More than 17,000 people were killed here during the Khmer Rouge regime, and today, there are mass graves and a memorial stupa (a Buddhist reliquary) with thousands of human bones. An audio tour tells the heart-braking history.

Photo: Chelms Varthoumlien/Unsplash
Address: Roluos Village, Sangkat Cheung Aek, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 7:30am–5:30pm
Phone: +855 93 388 988
Internet: www.cambodianmuseum.org
More Info: 15km southwest of the city

National Museum of Cambodia

This red-stoned traditional royal Khmer building from the 1920s offers a glimpse of the Khmer Empire's rich heritage. With artefacts dating back to pre-Angkorian times, the museum's pieces are some of the only remaining historical items that survived the Khmer Rouge.

Photo: 24278850/Pixabay
Address: Preah Ang Eng Street 13, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 8am–5pm
Phone: +855 23 217 643
More Info: Entrance at the corner of Street 13 and Street 178

Phnom Chisor Temple

About one hour's drive from the city, you can visit the ruins of the Phnom Chisor Temple, a temple from the Angkorian era. From the hill where it is located, you will have great views over the countryside, but keep in mind that it can be very hot to climb all the way up during midday.

Photo: JM Travel Photography/Shutterstock.com
Address: Phnom Chisor, Stairway of Chiso Mountain from the East, Takeo Province, Cambodia
Opening hours: Daily 7:30am–5pm
Phone: +855 69 568 375

Independence Monument

This tall building is a symbol of Cambodia's freedom from France, gained in 1953. This Angkorian-style tower is mostly used as a landmark now, but the parks surrounding it are popular for picnics.

Photo: Peter Stuckings/Shutterstock.com
Address: Intersection of Norodom Boulevard and Sihanouk Boulevard, Phnom Penh

Wat Ounalom

This temple is the headquarters of Cambodian Buddhism, and it's home to 350 moments. At the entrance, five golden Buddhas welcome the visitors. It was founded in 1443 and is conveniently located close to the Royal Palace and the river bank.

Photo: Tepikina Nastya/Shutterstock.com
Address: Samdach Sothearos Boulevard, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 6am–6pm
Phone: +855 12 890 010

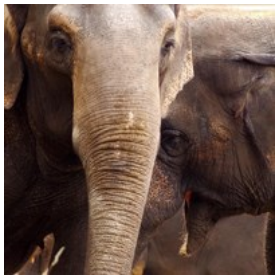

Tuol Sleng Museum

A former school known as S-21, this building became the hub of the Khmer Rouge's interrogation and torture of more than 17,000 'enemies' of the state. School rooms were turned into cells and today victims' portraits align the corridors of this daunting building. This is an emotional visit, a place to pay respect to the victims of Cambodia's tragedy.

Photo: meunierd/Shutterstock.com
Address: Corner of Street 113 and Street 250, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 7am–5:30pm
Phone: +855 93 388 988
Internet: https://tuolsleng.gov.kh/en
Email: info@tuolslenggenocidemuseum.com

Phnom Tamao Zoological Park and Wildlife Rescue Center (PTWRC)

This is the biggest zoo in Cambodia, and here you can see many different animals from the local fauna. The Wildlife Rescue Center saves animals that have been trapped or injured, to set them free again after rehabilitation. If you book a tour, you will get the chance to see the staff's heroic work and to meet some of the animals.

Photo: wal_172619/Pixabay
Address: National Road No. 2, Takeo, Takev, Cambodia
Phone: +855 95 970 175
Internet: www.wildlifealliance.org
Email: wildlifetourspt@wildlifealliance.org
More Info: About 45 kilometres southwest of the city

Yoga Phnom Penh

For all the Yogis and Yoginis out there, this is a must-visit. At this beautiful and calm studio, you can attend different kinds of yoga classes or maybe one of their workshops. You can either pre-book a class or go to one of the drop-in classes.

Photo: sakepaint/Shutterstock.com
Address: 39, Street 21, Preah Norodom Boulevard 41, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 77 541 975
More Info: Opposite Pagoda Wat Svay Popey, Near TchoTchou School

DINING

GuoZhongHua / Shutterstock.com

Composed by a mix of Thai and Vietnamese cuisine, Cambodian cuisine is varied, simple and delicious. A diet is usually based on fish and soups while the local food offers healthy and abundant Asian surprises. Khmer highlights are fish amok (fish cooked in coconut) and barbecued beef, which can be found on most street corners in the early evening around the Central Market. As the city is made up of many communities including Vietnamese, Chinese and Expatriates, there is a variety of delicacies and restaurants catering to a large expatriate community.

Malis

Stylish restaurant serving an upscale Khmer dining experience. Start the evening by enjoying a cocktail by the impressive water fountain and savouring flavourful dishes like Takeo Sausages and Saraman beef.

Photo: sharonang / Pixabay.com
Address: 136 Norodom Blvd, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 6am–8:30pm
Phone: +855 23 221 022
Internet: https://malis.thalias.com.kh
Email: phnompenh@malis-restaurant.com

Khmer Surin

This sophisticated restaurant offers good Khmer and Thai food like mango salad and excellent amok in a relaxing low seating ambiance in an old wooden house. Even though the climate outside is hot and humid for most of the year, the plants and water managed micro climate will wipe the heat out.

Photo: GuoZhongHua / Shutterstock.com
Address: 9, Street 57, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Sun-Sat 7am-10pm
Phone: +855 23 363 050
Internet: www.khmersurinrestaurant.com
Email: booking@khmersurinrestaurant.com

FCC (Foreign Correspondents Club)

Considered a Phnom Penh landmark, FCC overlooks the river with its inspiring colonial decor. They mainly serve western dishes like fried chicken with chips and some typical Cambodian food while you will also find tasty pizzas on the menu.

Photo: Jacek Chabraszewski / Shutterstock.com
Address: 363, Sisowath Quay, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 69 253 222
Internet: www.fcccollection.com

Pho de Paris Restaurant

This is a popular lunch place to have local and Vietnamese dishes, and you will be amazed by how high value for money the food is. The menu shows pictures of the dishes, so do not worry if you can not understand all the native names. Don't forget to try the traditional fresh spring rolls and coconut shake.

Photo: Joshua Resnick/Shutterstock.com
Address: 260 Preah Monivong Blvd (93), Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 6:30am–10pm
Phone: +855 89 308 525

Boat Noodle

You can find extensive, tasty, and affordable Khmer at Boat Noodle. Another reason to try this out is the ambience. It has the look and feel of a traditional Khmer house, wooden decor, Khmer silk, surrounded by lush plants and fishes swimming in small ponds. Their English speaking staff enable you to tone down the spiciness of some dishes easily.

Photo: PJjaruwan/Shutterstock.com
Address: 184, St, Preah Trasak Paem St. (63), Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 7am–8pm
Phone: +855 11 952 120

Do Forni

For night of romance and delightful Italian cuisine bring your loved one to Do Forni. The food is in the highest quality and so is the service. This is the place to indulge in Italian specialists like Saltimbocca Pork with Parma Hamand fine wines.

Photo: Mauro Pezzotta/Shutterstock.com
Address: 26 Old August Site, Sothearos Boulevard, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Sun-Sat 6pm-10pm
Phone: +855 23 999 200
Internet: www.sofitel-phnompenh-phokeethra.com/restaurants-bars/do-forni
Email: h6526-fb@sofitel.com

CAFÉS

Fahmi Fakhrudin/Unsplash

Just like Siem Reap, Phnom Penh is a haven for fruit lovers. From mangoes of all shapes and sizes to delicious mangosteens. All markets have a fruit section, and sellers walk along most main streets selling fresh papaya, pineapple, and whichever fruit is in season. However, you will still find cafés serving a strong cup of coffee and Western-style pastries.

The Shop 240

Run by a Belgian couple, The Shop 240 offers a tasty selection of healthy breakfast options, delicious juices, sandwiches, and quiches. Splurge on the dessert selection and the homemade pralines.

Photo: Hans / Pixabay.com
Address: Oknha Chhun St. (240), Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 6:30am–7pm
Phone: +855 92 955 963
Email: marketing@theshop-cambodia.com

Feel Good Café

The coffee at Feel Good Café is made with lots of love and here you can choose from lattes, cappuccinos, or other western coffee drinks. They also have a menu offering lighter snacks, and it is a popular breakfast place.

Photo: rawpixel.com / Pexels.com
Address: House 79 Street 136, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 7am–6pm
Phone: +855 77 694 702
Internet: www.feelgoodcoffee.com.kh
Email: info@feelgoodcoffee.com.kh

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

View Apart / Shutterstock.com

Known for being a city without limits, Phnom Penh's reputation as a nightspot rings true. With the local population out and about at night after years of unrest, bars and clubs have mushroomed in the last years.

Heart of Darkness

This popular night spot is packed every night after midnight. A mix of backpackers, locals and long term residents keep the place grooving until the sun comes up.

Photo: Minerva Studio/Shutterstock.com
Address: 38, Street 51 Pasteur, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 77 837 777

Elephant Bar

Set in the most luxurious hotel in town, Le Royal, the Elephant Bar's happy hour (4pm to 9 pm) serves some of the best cocktails in town. Dress up and indulge in live piano music and comfortable seating. A must try is their Femme Fatale cocktail, specifically created in 1967 for Jacqueline Kennedy during her visit to Cambodia.

Photo: 453169 / Pixabay.com
Address: 92, Rukhak Vithei at Preah Monivong Boulevard, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 12pm-12am
Phone: +855 23 981 888
Internet: www.raffles.com
Email: Dining.LeRoyal@raffles.com

Score! Bar & Grill

This lively sports bar is the perfect spot to catch a live game or just have a few beers while in town. There is a huge screen on the wall, which is visible from every corner of the large sitting area.

Photo: g-stockstudio/Shutterstock.com
Address: 5, Street 282, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 8am-2am
Phone: +855 23 221 357
Internet: www.scorekh.com
Email: livesports@scorekh.com

Top Banana

Top Banana is a guesthouse and bar popular among the hip backpacker crowd. The atmosphere here is very laid-back, live band performances are common, and new acquaintance is easily made. Don't miss the outdoor rooftop area.

Photo: Amie Johnson/Unsplash
Address: 9E0, Street 278, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 128 85 572
Email: topbanana.guesthouse@gmail.com

Bouchon

Bouchon is a trendy, dimly-lit wine bar with nice background music and an impressive selection of French wines. With its unbeatable location very close to the Royal Palace, this bar is an easy favourite among locals and expats alike.

Photo: kaboompics.com / Pexels.com
Address: 82, Street 174, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Mon–Sat 4pm–12am
Phone: +855 77 881 103

Le Moon Rooftop Bar

For a great view of the city at night, head to this chill and relaxing bar at the top of a hotel. The drinks are well-made and refreshing - a bit pricey, but worth it for the beautiful location.

Photo: Thoom / Shutterstock.com
Address: Amanjaya Pancam Hotel, 1, Street 154, Sisowath Quay, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 023 214 747
Email: lemoon@amanjaya-suites-phnom-penh.com

Cloud

This garden bar in Tonle Bassac has gained a reputation as a chill, comfortable cultural hub in the city. They boast a decor inspired by modern urban art and indie aesthetic, surrounded by vegetation. Along with their careful choice of beer, they also serve food. Board games are available, and many kinds of events take place here.

Photo: Picography / Pexels.com
Address: 32, Street 9, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Mon-Wed 2pm-11pm. Thu 2pm-11:45pm. Fri-Sat 2pm-1am
Phone: +855 89 467 345

SHOPPING

Becca McHaffie/Unsplash

Phnom Penh has an eclectic shopping scene. Some major international clothing chains have already hit the town, and with the several bustling markets and diverse communities, everything is here—from fragrant markets to modern malls.

Street 240

Street 240, behind the Royal Palace, offers higher-end choices from clothes to jewellery. The Bliss shop sets the scene with its beautiful silk clothing, bedding and accessories. Further down is Veggies, the local delicatessen. The rest of the street has small boutiques selling jewels, art and antiques.

Photo: kowit sitthi/Shutterstock.com
Address: Street 240, Phnom Penh

Tuol Tompoung Market

Tuol Tompoung Market, commonly known as the Russian Market, is an iconic destination offering a sensory feast for visitors, with its labyrinthine lanes brimming with treasures waiting to be discovered. From traditional Cambodian handicrafts and textiles to unique souvenirs and local delicacies, the market caters to every taste and preference.

Photo: Etienne Hartjes / Shutterstock.com
Address: Corner of Street 163 and Street 444, Phnom Penh

Central Market

The grand Central Market, with its inspiring art deco architecture, offers an enormous variety of products, in an open and spread-out space. Come here for clothes, produce, jewellery, and all sorts of souvenirs and to get a feel for what a bustling Southeast Asian market is like.

Photo: karolranis/Pixabay
Address: Central Market, Street 128, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Sun & Sat 7am–6pm

Sorya Center Point

The Sorya Center Point is a modern shopping mall located in the heart of Phnom Penh. It boasts eight storeys filled with a plethora of shops catering to every whim. From trendy fashion boutiques and electronics stores to beauty parlours and jewellery boutiques.

Photo: Blend Images/Shutterstock.com
Address: 13-61, Street 63, Sangkat Phsar Thmei I, Khan Daun Penh, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 9am–9pm
Phone: +855 16 556 608
Internet: https://soryacenterpoint.com
Email: info@soryacenterpoint.com

Night Market

No trip to Southeast Asia is complete without a visit to the local Night Market, where exotic mouthwatering foods are sold by local vendors. The variety of colours and flavours make your head spin, and real bargains are available on all sorts of items.

Photo: Norbert Braun/Unsplash
Address: Preah Sisowath Quay, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 5pm–11pm

Aeon Mall

If street hawkers and market haggling are getting a little too overwhelming, head to the air-conditioned Aeon Mall and shop for everyday items and clothing at a fixed price.

Photo: VannPhotography/Shutterstock.com
Address: 132, Street Samdach Sothearos, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 23 901 091

Monument Books

This bookstore is popular with English speakers, and sells more than just books - here you will also find postcards to send home, for example. There is also a huge selection of toys here, so kids are likely to also have a great time.

Photo: Suzy Hazelwood / Pexels.com
Address: 111, Norodom Boulevard, Phnom Penh
Phone: +855 12 731 333
Email: sambo@monument-books.com

TOURIST INFORMATION

Thea/Unsplash

Best Time to Visit

Cambodia has rainy weather for half of the year and dry weather for the other half. The seasons can be subdivided into dry-cool (November-January), dry-hot (February-May), rainy-hot (May-September) and rainy-cool (October-November). You will find the best weather in the dry-cool season, with an overall average temperature of 26°C—this is the most popular time to go.

The rainy-cool season can be an alternative if you want to avoid the crowds of tourists—the green landscapes boast beautiful colours during this time. However, so much rain might be uncomfortable for some, and if you are planning day trips, be aware that water may flood the streets and make it impossible to reach smaller, remote places. The rainiest months are August and September.

Photo: dMz/Pixabay

Passport / Visa

Visas to Cambodia are available at airports and land borders, as well as online for citizens of most countries. In order to obtain one, make sure you can provide a passport valid for at least six months and a passport-sized photo for your visa. Visitors from an ASEAN member country do not need a visa to enter Cambodia, as long as they have a valid passport.

It's essential for travellers to check the latest visa requirements and entry regulations from the nearest Cambodian embassy or consulate or through official government channels before planning their trip to Cambodia.

Photo: ConvertKit/Unsplash

Phnom Penh International Airport (PNH)

Phnom Penh International Airport (PNH) lies approximately 10 km from the city centre. The easiest way to get to and from the airport is by taxi. It takes around 20-40 minutes depending on traffic. You can also take a tuk-tuk. Whatever alternative you choose, you can buy a coupon inside the airport terminal to avoid the hustle outside.

Photo: Marco López/Unsplash
Address: Phnom Penh International Airport
Phone: +855 23 862 800
Internet: https://pnh.cambodia-airports.aero

Health and Safety Advice

While vaccinations are not mandatory for entering Cambodia, they are highly recommended, along with bringing essential medications from home, as they may not be readily available in Phnom Penh.

It's crucial to have comprehensive travel insurance as healthcare in Cambodia can be costly, with upfront payments required, posing significant challenges in emergencies. Stay safe by avoiding tap water, opt for bottled water instead. Be sure to also pack (or buy there) an insect repellent to fend off mosquito-borne diseases.

Photo: Zhen H/Unsplash

Public Transport

Although many visitors still often use tuk tuks, cyclos or taxis to move around the city, the municipality of Phnom Penh has recently re-opened the 'Phnom Penh City Bus', an efficient public bus service that is a bit slower, but more comfortable than the alternatives. Moreover, they don't require you to negotiate prices with the driver, as other means of transport do. Bus tickets are cheap, and you can find transport apps on your phone.

Photo: kilarov zaneit/Unsplash

Tuk Tuks, Cyclos & Motorbikes

Navigate the bustling streets of Phnom Penh with ease by opting for traditional modes of transportation like tuk-tuks or cyclos. Tuk-tuks, a motorised vehicle common in Cambodia, offer convenient and flexible travel options, though agreeing on a price beforehand is essential. Alternatively, cyclos, typically operated by elderly countryside dwellers, offer a slower but more scenic journey through the city at a slightly lower cost than moto-taxis. For added convenience, phone apps are available to hail tuk-tuks and taxis. While motorbike rides are popular for exploring, caution is advised due to the city's chaotic traffic and lax adherence to road regulations.

Photo: Chetan Hireholi/Unsplash

Taxi

There are two types of taxis in Phnom Penh, those with a meter and those without. You can find them outside major hotels or close to the tourist attractions. If you choose a taxi without a meter, always agree on a price before you start the journey.

Phnom Penh Taxi
+855 17 757 800

Phnom Penh Taxi Drivers
+855 92 994 227

Photo: Waldemar/Unsplash

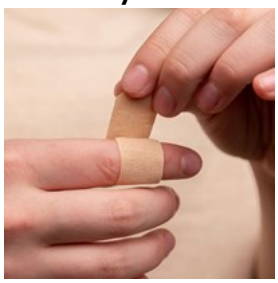

Post

At the main post offices in the city, you can buy stamps and receive help for sending parcels. Always watch the carrier put the stamp on your postcard, letter, or parcel, otherwise, there might be a risk it will not reach its destination.

Photo: Sonia Kardash/Unsplash
Address: Cambodia Post - Corner of Street 13 and Street 102, Sangkat, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Mon–Fri 7:30am–5pm
Phone: +855 023 428 080
Internet: https://cambodiapost.com.kh/home

Pharmacy

One of the biggest pharmacies in Phnom Penh is Pharmacie de la Gare, which is located next to the railway station at: 124, Preah Monivong Boulevard (93), Phnom Penh
+855 92 711 771
Opening hours: daily 8am–7pm

UCare Pharmacy is part of a recently opened pharmacy chain and offers one of the largest stock of medicine (from France) in town.

Photo: Diana Polekhina/Unsplash
Address: UCare Pharmacy - 26-28 Sothearos Boulevard corner St. 178, Phnom Penh
Opening hours: Daily 8am–10pm
Phone: +855 95 888 531
Internet: www.ucarepharmacy.com
Email: info@ucarepharma.com

Telephone

Country code: +855 Area Code: 23

Photo: Wesley Hilario/Unsplash

Electricity

230 V, 50Hz

Photo: Mike Winkler/Unsplash

Population

2.281 million (2023)

Currency
Cambodian Riel (KHR): 1 KHR = 10 kak = 100 sen

Opening hours
Most shops are open Monday to Sunday from 8am–7pm. Markets open from 6am–5pm. Stores and markets are only closed on public holidays.

Newspapers
The Cambodia Daily: www.cambodiadaily.com
The Phnom Penh Post (bi-monthly): https://phnompenhpost.com

Emergency numbers
Ambulance: +855 023 724 891 (or 119 if you have a Cambodian phone number).

Police: +855 023 366 841 - +855 023 720 235 (or 117 if you have a Cambodian phone number).

Fire: +855 023 723 555 (or 118 if you have a Cambodian phone number).

A
B
C
D
1
2
3
4
Boeng Kak Lake
Tonle Sap River
Wat Phnom
Stupa with Buddha Relic
Inter City
Wat Ounalom
National Museum
Royal Palace
Chaktomuk Theater
Vihear Preah Keo Morakot Silver Pagoda
Cambodja-Vietnam Monument
Independence Monument
Bassac Theater
Kampuchea Krom
Oknha Tep Phan
88 Phsar Dek
90 Chivapol
92 Daun Penh
96 Christopher
Howes
102 Preah Ang Non
106 Preah Mohaksat Treiyani Kossamak
108 Okhna Plong
118
126
134
136
140
164
166
168
170
180 Croix Rouge Khmere
158 Okhna Truong Cang
172 Chey Varaman Ti Pram Pi
174 Okhna Ket
178 Samdach Preah Sokun Meanbon
184 Keo Chea
200 Okhna Men
208 Samdach Chakrei Ponn
214 Samdach Pan
222 Samdach Sangkreach Tieng
228 Samdach Mongkol Hem
240 Preah Ang Phanavong
254 Senei Vinnavaut Oum
262
274 Boulevard Samdach Preah Sihanouk
278
282
288
294
Samdach Louis Em
Chrun
You Hak
Samdach Phuong
Okhna Peich
Okhna Chhun
Samdach Preah Theamak Lethet Ouk
Preah Ang Makhak Vann
Chan Nak
Ouk Lonn
Hassakan
Krala Hom Kong
K Phomin
Seng Thuon
Okhna Santhomok
Preah Sotheavong
Preah Sisovath
France
Bassac
Wat Koh
Okhna Nou Kan
Bld Republ Populaire
Boulevard Preah Monyvong
Boulevard Preah Norodom
Boulevard Samdach Sothearos
Boulevard Preah Suramarit
Confederation de la Russie (Pochentong Street)
Jok Dimitrov
Preah Ang Duong
S Sangkhak Neayok Souk
Oknha Hing Penn
Oknha Ang Yukanthor
Preah Ang Yukanthor
Preah Ang Eng
Preah Ang Thong
Oknha Tang
Preah Ang Chan Reachea
Preah Ang Thong
Preah Ang Thong Kang Tboung
Preah Ang Thong Kang Cheung
Preah Ang Vihear Thom
Preah Ang Vihear Suor
Preah Ang Vihear Leu
Preah Ang Vihear Kraom
Preah Ang Vihear Chas
Preah Ang Vihear Thmei
Preah Ang Vihear Kandal
Preah Ang Vihear Lovek
Preah Ang Vihear Tboung
Preah Ang Vihear Cheung

100	C1	180 Croix Rouge Khmere	B3	51 Pasteur	B2 B3 C4
102 Preah Ang Non	B1	184 Keo Chea	B3	53 Calmette	B2
103	A4	19 Preah Ang Yukanthor	B1 B2 C3	59	B4
104 Seng Thuon	C1	190	A3	61 Oknha Hing Penn	B1
105	A4	198	A3	63 Preah Trasak Paem	B3 B4
106 Preah Mohaksat Treiyani Kossamak	A1 B1	200 Oknha Men	B3	67 Samdach Sangkhak Neayok Srey	B2
107	A2 A3 A4	208 Samdach Chakrei Ponn	B3 C3	85	B4
108 Oknha Plong	B1	21 Abdul Carime	C4	88 Phsar Dek	A1 B1
109	A2 A3	214	C3	9 Ke Nou	D4
111	A3 A4	214 Samdach Pan	B3	90 Chivapol	A1 B1
113	A3 A4	217 Boulevard Charles de Gaulle	A2 A3	92 Daun Penh	A1 B1
115	A3 A4	222 Samdach Sangkreach Tieng	B4 C3	96 Christopher Howes	A1 B1
118	A2	227	A4 B4	Bassac	B2
118 Chey Chetra	B2	228 Samdach Mongkol Iem	B4 C3	Boulevard Preah Monyvong	A1 A2 A3 B4
125	A3 A4	232	A4 B4	Boulevard Preah Norodom	B2 C3
126	A2	236	A4	Boulevard Preah Suramarit	C4 D4
126 Nokor	B2	240 Preah Ang Phanavong	B4 C4	Boulevard Republique Populaire	A4
13 Preah Ang Eng	C2	242	A4 B4	Boulevard Samdach Sothearos	C2 D3 D4
130 Khemarak Phomin	C2	244	C3	Chan Nak	B2
134	A2	246 Vimol Thoam Thong	D3	Chrun You Hak	C4 D4
136 Oknha Inn	B2 C2	248	A4	Confederation de la Russie (Pochentong Street)	A2 B2
137	A2	250	A4 B4	France	B1
139	A2	252	B4	Jok Dimitrov	A2
140	A2	254 Senei Vinnavaut Oum	B4 C4	Kampuchea Krom	A2
141	A3 A4	256	C4	Krala Hom Kong	B2 C2
143	A3 A4	258 Long Nget	D3 D4	Oknha Chhun	C3 D3

144 Preah Ang Hassakan	C2	260		A4	Oknha Nou Kan		A4
148 Oknha Ouk Lonn	C2	262		B4	Oknha Peich		B4
15 Preah Chan Reachea	C2	266		D4	Oknha Santhomok	B1	C1
154 Dekcho Damdin	B2 C2	274 Boulevard Samdach Preah Sihanouk	B4	C4	Oknha Tep Phan		A3
158 Oknha Truong Cang	B3	276		A4	Preah Ang Duong	B2	C1
164	A2 A3	278	A4	B4	Preah Ang Makhak Vann	C2	C3
166	A3	280		A4	Preah Sisovath	B1	C1 C2 D3
168	A3	282 Samdach Louis Em	B4	C4	Preah Sotheavong		B1
170	A3	288		B4	Samdach Phuong		C4
172 Chey Varaman Ti Pram Pi	B3	29		C4	Samdach Preah Sangkhak Neayok Souk		B2
172 Ly Yoak Lay	C2	294		C4	Samdach Preah Theamak Lethet Ouk		C3
174 Oknha Ket	B3	5 Angkor		C2	Wat Koh		B3
178 Samdach Preah Sokun Meanbon	B3						