

Siem Reap

Photo: BlueOrange Studio/Shutterstock.com

Banana Republic images/Shutterstock.com

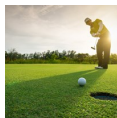

Oleskaus/Shutterstock.com

Rawpixel.com/Shutterstock.com

Home to the awe-inspiring Angkor Wat temples, the charming town of Siem Reap, in the heart of Cambodia, invites you to embark on a journey through time, where majestic ruins stand as testaments to a glorious past. Beyond its archaeological treasures, Siem Reap captivates with its bustling markets, flavourful cuisine, and warm hospitality, promising lasting memories for every traveller who sets foot on its storied streets.

Featured

Angkor Wat Putt

Set in a well-maintained garden, this mini golf course with 14 holes is fun ...

The Angkor Centre for Cons...

The Angkor Centre for Conservation of Biodiversity (ACCB) can only be visite...

Banteay Srey Butterfly Centre

This park is a welcoming break from temple-watching and is filled with beaut...

Wat Preah Ang

This temple is located close to the Old Market area and the Royal Residence...

Pre Rup

If you are looking for a sunset location, Pre Rup is your best bet. The temp...

Top 5

Angkor Archaeological Park

This is the former capital of the Khmer Empire, which ruled this region betw...

Tonle Sap Lake

Tonle Sap Lake is the largest freshwater lake in Southeast Asia. This vast e...

Balloon Ride

Revel in 360-degree views of temples, hovering high and low on a thrilling h...

Cambodian Cultural Village

This Disney-styled village recreates Cambodian culture and history. From hil...

Miniature Replicas Of Angkor

Dy Proeung has, over the years, laboriously replicated Angkor's famous templ...

THE CITY

Anton_Ivanov/Shutterstock.com

Siem Reap is small, quaint, and centred around the small river that runs through it. Right next to the river is the Old Town, known as the French Quarter, which is nestled around the Old Market.

Though Cambodia went through its own self-destructive turmoil under the rule of the Khmer Rouge (1975-1979), today, the country is developing: roads are being built, electricity runs continuously, and streets are not flooded any longer. Yet, this new modernisation has not spoiled the natural beauty of the Cambodian scenery, as farmers work in the rice fields, children skip to school, and palm trees dot the landscape.

DO & SEE

Jeff WU/Shutterstock.com

Even if Siem Reap isn't a big city with a lot to offer. Be inspired by the Apsara dancing, Khmer traditional art and the ancient temples surrounded by ancient trees in an eloquent collaboration between art and nature. Transportation is readily available so feel free to visit whatever is on offer, as nothing is too far or too hard to access. The entrance to the Angkorian temple complex is just a simple drive away on a road magnificently lined with ancient trees.

Angkor Archaeological Park

This is the former capital of the Khmer Empire, which ruled this region between the 9th and 12th centuries. Angkor Archaeological Park evokes the rich historical, architectural and cultural past of the Khmers. The majestic Angkor complex offers temples galore, which is a marvel to explore. Each temple is unique, from the grandeur of Angkor Wat to the beauty of Banteay Srei, this dynastic 'village' is spellbinding. You need a minimum of two days to explore.

As the temples are spread out, transportation is required. Bicycles, motorbikes, tuk-tuks and air-conditioned cars are at your disposal. Guides can be sought through most hotels and guesthouses.

Photo: Peerapat Lekkla/Shutterstock.com
Address: Treng Village, Slor Kram Commune, Siem Reap
Phone: +855 92 659 922

Tonle Sap Lake

Tonle Sap Lake is the largest freshwater lake in Southeast Asia. This vast expanse of water is at the heart of Siem Reap's past and present lure.

Cruising through the most popular village, Chong Khneas, you can see floating markets, a school and a bar. They look even more charming under the sunset. Not to forget that around the lake's mangrove forests live over 100 different waterfowl. So, go discover more.

Photo: Mycola Huba/Shutterstock.com
Address: Tonle Sap Lake

Balloon Ride

Revel in 360-degree views of temples, hovering high and low on a thrilling hot-air balloon ride. From 200 metres height, you can see the Angkorian ruins and the neighbouring countryside in all its splendour.

Photo: fractalprizm/Shutterstock.com
Address: Kork Tachan Village, Siem Reap
Phone: +855 97 896 5834

Cambodian Cultural Village

This Disney-styled village recreates Cambodian culture and history. From hill tribes to Phnom Penh's Central Market, this tour gives you an original insight into the country's past and present.

Photo: H-AB/Shutterstock.com
Address: National Road 6, Krouns Village, Siem Reap
Phone: +855 63 963 098

Miniature Replicas Of Angkor

Dy Proeung has, over the years, laboriously replicated Angkor's famous temples. His passion for these Khmer marvels and his craftsmanship have been recognised by former King Norodom Sihanouk, who awarded him a special prize for his contribution to the Cambodian arts.

Photo: Dmitry V. Petrenko/Shutterstock.com
Address: Miniature Replicas of Angkor, Siem Reap

Artisans Angkor

Browse around this workshop as craftsmen work and then cross the garden to the shop, which offers the finest silk designs and famous carvings. The Silk Centre will also give you an interesting insight into the steps needed in the production of scarves and fashion fabrics.

Photo: stocktributor/Shutterstock.com
Address: Stung Thmey Street, Siem Reap
Phone: +855 63 963 330

Internet: <https://artisansangkor.com>

Phare - The Cambodian Circus

This outdoor circus is built to keep and encourage the careers of Cambodian artists. Different performances with music, dance, juggling and acrobatics tell the stories about the life and society of Cambodians. When you visit this theatre, you can also contribute to their wishes of having an indoor venue one day.

Photo: jefferyhamstock/Shutterstock.com

Address: South of intersection with Sok San Road, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 15 499 480

Internet: <https://pharecircus.org>

Email: ticketing@pharecambodiancircus.org

The Angkor Centre for Conservation of Biodiversity

The Angkor Centre for Conservation of Biodiversity (ACCB) can only be visited by booking a guided tour for one and a half hours. This centre rescues and rehabilitates local animals and offers visitors a chance to learn about Cambodian wildlife.

Photo: DenisShumov/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kbal Spean, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 99 604 017

Email: info@accb-cambodia.org

Banteay Srey Butterfly Centre

This park is a welcoming break from temple-watching and is filled with beautiful butterflies and tropical flowers. Thousands of native species fly around the park and the professional guides will introduce you to the project and the park.

Photo: Alfred Schrock/Unsplash

Address: Banteay Srei, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 97 852 7852

Internet: www.angkorbutterfly.com

Email: mail@angkorbutterfly.com

Cambodia Landmine Museum

Cambodia still suffers from landmines spreading out in the country. This is not only a museum but also a home and school for at-risk youth and landmine-affected children. It tells the story of the 35-year war and how the inhabitants are still working to get rid of these cruel hidden weapons.

Photo: Adwo/Shutterstock.com

Address: Angkor National Park, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 12 630 446

Internet: www.cambodialandminemuseum.org

Wat Preah Ang

This temple is located close to the Old Market area and the Royal Residence. This is one of the oldest pagodas in the town and it is known for being unusually colourful compared to other temples, as well as unusual sculptures and beautiful gardens.

Photo: Dmitry V. Petrenko/Shutterstock.com

Address: Wat Preah Ang, Siem Reap

Sokkhak Spa

After hours of walking among temple ruins, you might want to enjoy a relaxing massage. Sokkhak Spa also offers a wide array of different treatments, such as facials and scrubs in a serene atmosphere. After a visit here, you are ready to climb the temples again.

Photo: Sofia Zhuravets/Shutterstock.com

Address: Sok San Street, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 63 763 797

Internet: www.sokkhakspa.com

Email: info@sokkhakspa.com

Angkor National Museum

If you are planning to visit the temple ruins of Angkor Wat, this museum is a perfect start. It will equip you with a lot of valuable information shown in galleries and artefacts so you can easily understand the history and beliefs behind the temples.

Photo: weltreisendertj/Shutterstock.com

Address: 968 Vithei Charles de Gaulle Boulevard, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 63 966 601

Internet: <https://angkornationalmuseum.com>

Phnom Kulen National Park

To get into this national park, foreigners must pay a toll fee. This place sits magically on the top of mountains that have been used to build the temples of Angkor Wat. The water running from the beautiful waterfall is said to be holy and locals often bring a bottle of it with them home.

Photo: Dmitry V. Petrenko/Shutterstock.com

Address: Phnom Kulen National Park, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 77 354 534

Angkor Thom

Angkor Thom was the last and most enduring capital city of the Khmer empire. It is a compound containing many temples created by and for King Jayavarman VII. At the city's centre is Jayavarman's state temple, the Bayon, one of the most impressive temples. The tour is like walking in the past offering you a glimpse of the earlier civilisation.

Photo: Efired/Shutterstock.com

Address: Angkor Thom, Siem Reap

Ta Prohm

This temple is a must-see in Siem Reap. The photogenic and atmospheric combination of trees growing in the ruins of the temple make it one of the favourite tourist attractions. It was founded by the Khmer King Jayavarman VII as a Mahayana Buddhist monastery and university.

Photo: Vixit/Shutterstock.com

Address: National Road, Siem Reap

Preah Khan

One of the greatest treasures of Cambodia is Preah Kahn. It was built by King Indravarman I and has a mysterious and untouched aura. Many gigantic trees are growing in and around the temple structures. Tour guides make the visit even more special as they can give insights into the details and history of the site.

Photo: Aleksandar Todorovic/Shutterstock.com

Address: Angkor Wat, Siem Reap

Bantey Samre

The architecture, the grand entrance and the beautiful reliefs give this place a real sense of peace and tranquillity. It is a wonderful temple with plenty of corridors, rooms and walkways. Take your time to enjoy the beautiful carvings and the skills of the craftsmen who built the complex.

Photo: Voraorn Ratanakorn/Shutterstock.com

Address: Banteay Srei, Siem Reap

Pre Rup

If you are looking for a sunset location, Pre Rup is your best bet. The temple is one of the highest in the area and also a combined construction of bricks, laterite and sandstone, in a similar architectural style as that of the East Mebon. Wandering through the paths at Pre Rup is an extraordinary experience.

Photo: emperorcosar/Shutterstock.com

Address: Pre Rup, Siem Reap

Angkor Wat Putt

Set in a well-maintained garden, this mini golf course with 14 holes is fun for the whole family. Miniature temples work as hurdles and make the golf round exciting and unpredictable and the view of open greenery rice fields surrounded by friendly local villagers is also wonderful.

Photo: sattahipbeach/Shutterstock.com

Address: Angkor High School Road, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 12 302 330

Internet: <https://angkorwatputt.com>

Email: angkorwatputt@gmail.com

DINING

GuoZhongHua/Shutterstock.com

Khmer food is neither too spicy nor bland and is mainly based on fish and meat. To find local food, look around the main market and on the other side of the river, where you will find many food stands. Breakfast consists of noodles, soups, and rice with some type of meat. In the evening, you can smell the barbecued beef fumes rising through the air, which most locals have with the local Angkor beer.

Le Jardin des Délices

This restaurant in a beautiful garden is part of the École d'Hôtellerie et de Tourisme Paul Dubrulle, a unique training school for underprivileged children. They offer a weekly set menu and high-quality French cuisine with attentive service.

Photo: Marian Weyo/Shutterstock.com

Address: National Road 6, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 89 629 398

Internet: <https://ecolepauldubrulle.org/training-restaurant>

Abacus

Abacus Garden Restaurant and Bar is a small eatery in a traditional Khmer house, serving excellent European and Asian food.

The design has been made by two award-winning French-Khmer architects and features a luminous dining room as well as an alfresco terrace.

Photo: TMON/Shutterstock.com

Address: Abacus Lane, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun - Sat 11:00 AM - 10:00 PM

Phone: +855 12 644 286

Internet: <https://restaurantabacus.com>

Email: abacusrestaurant@gmail.com

Khmer Kitchen

This small, family-run side-street restaurant offers what some people would say is the best food in town. Delicious food such as coconut fish soup and baked pumpkin are served with quality service.

Photo: naito29/Shutterstock.com

Address: Street 9, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun - Sat 7:00 AM - 10:00 PM

Phone: +855 12 763 468

Internet: www.khmerkitchens.com

Old Market

Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served in this bustling market. While browsing through the endless supply of souvenirs with high value for money, take the chance to enjoy inexpensive local food including fruits, vegetables, spices, seafood, fish and meat.

Photo: EQRoy/Shutterstock.com

Address: Psar Chaa Road, Siem Reap

Sala Bai Hotel & Restaurant School

This restaurant school has educated more than 900 young people with a majority of girls since 2002. You can support this project by coming here for lunch. The menu has a few selected Asian and French dishes that change on a regular basis.

Photo: the Hip Photo/Shutterstock.com

Address: Wat Svay, Tonle Sap Road, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 7am-9am / noon-2pm; Sat & Sun 7:30am-9:30am

Internet: www.salabai.com

The Hashi

The Hashi is known as one of the best restaurants in town serving Japanese cuisine. The ambience is elegant, the menu offers a wide array of delicious south east Asian-dishes and service holds high standard.

Photo: Marcelo_Krelling/Shutterstock.com

Address: 321 Wat Bo, Salakamroeuk, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun - Sat 11:00 AM - 3:00 PM 6:00 PM - 11:00 PM

Phone: +855 63 969 007

Internet: www.instagram.com/hashicambodia

Email: eat@thehashi.com

Kanell

This is a place where you can hang out all day. At Kanell you can enjoy more than just tasty French and Asian food, they also offer a cooling swimming pool with sunbeds in a lush garden to relax on. When it's time for dinner you can choose to sit on the terrace, inside their lounge or in a private lounge just for you and your company.

Photo: GracePhotos/Shutterstock.com

Address: 7 Makara Street, Wat Damnak Area, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun - Sat 10:00 AM - 10:00 PM

Phone: +855 63 966 244

Internet: <https://kanell-siemreap.com>

Email: infos@kanellrestaurant.com

Heritage Suites Restaurant

For a breath of luxury you should make a visit at Heritage Suites Restaurant and enjoy a meal there. With a Khmer chef, educated in western kitchen, the menu offers different options of both international and Cambodian dishes, all cooked to perfection.

Photo: Khmer/Shutterstock.com

Address: Wat Polanka, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun - Sat 6:00 AM - 10:00 PM

Phone: +855 77 565 622

Internet: <https://heritagesuiteshotel.com/eat-and-drink>

Email: info@heritagesuiteshotel.com

Crocodile River Bistro

This restaurant serves schnitzel together with other Austrian and German dishes. For reasonable prices you can enjoy large portions of dishes with non-Asian flavours.

Photo: Brent Hofacker/Shutterstock.com

Address: Tonle Sap Road, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun 12:00 PM - 10:30 PM Tue - Sat 5:00 PM - 10:30 PM

Phone: +855 77 996 100

Haven Restaurant

This restaurant is located in the heart of Siem Reap, away from the hustle and bustle of Pub street. The premise is beautiful with a wide variety of flavorful Asian and Western food like Khmer Curry and fish amok.

Photo: sakdaphoto/Shutterstock.com

Address: Chocolate Road, Siem Reap
Opening hours: Mon - Sat 11:30 AM - 2:30 PM 5:30 PM - 9:30 PM
Phone: +855 78 342 404
Internet: <https://havencambodia.com>
Email: eat@havencambodia.com

Cuisine Wat Damnak

Wat Damnak uses only local fresh seasonal products and creates excellent traditional Cambodian food. The restaurant has been designed to offer three contrasting seating areas providing a tranquil ambience.

Photo: Narin Nonthamand/Shutterstock.com
Address: Sala Kamreuk Commune, Siem Reap
Opening hours: Tue - Sat 6:30 PM - 9:30 PM
Phone: +855 77 347 762
Internet: www.cuisinewatdamnak.com
Email: info@cuisinewatdamnak.com

CAFÉS

Art_Photo/Shutterstock.com

In Siem Reap, you will find a range of charming cafés throughout the city, offering everything from traditional Cambodian coffee to international blends. Many cafés boast cosy atmospheres and stylish decor, making them ideal spots to relax and recharge after exploring the nearby temples of Angkor Wat.

Siem Reap's café culture often integrates local flavours and ingredients into their coffee creations, providing a unique and flavorful experience for visitors.

Red Piano

Popular with the expat community, this establishment offers good fruit smoothies and a relaxing ambience. Angelina Jolie frequented here when she was filming Tomb Raider. Breakfast is served from 7am and the restaurant/café stays open until midnight.

Photo: Roman Debree/Shutterstock.com
Address: 341 Street 8, Siem Reap
Opening hours: Daily 7am-12:30am
Phone: +855 92 477 730
Internet: <https://redpianocambodia.com>

Footprint Cafes

You can find everything your heart desires at Footprint Cafes. With a simple and beautiful interior design, a cosy atmosphere, books to read and buy, as well as a wide selection of food and drinks like smoothies, pancakes, French toast, and Khmer food.

Photo: Mutita Narkmuang/Shutterstock.com
Address: Street 26, Wat Bo Village, Krong Siem Reap
Opening hours: Daily 7am-7pm
Phone: +855 92 800 308
Internet: <https://footprintcafes.org>
Email: info@footprintcafes.org

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

DisobeyArt/Shutterstock.com

Most of Siem Reap's nightlife is located around the Old Market area, concentrated on Pub Street. The choice of nightspots is growing as the city caters to an increasing number of tourists. You can enjoy the lovely surroundings and warm evenings by simply walking around the town centre.

Elephant Bar

Set in the most luxurious hotel in town, Raffles Grand Hotel d'Angkor, the Elephant Bar serves some of the best cocktails in town. Live piano and comfortable seating makes you relax and enjoy life.

Photo: tommaso79/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1 Charles de Gualle, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Sun - Sat 12:00 PM - 12:00 AM

Phone: +855 23 981 888

Internet: www.affles.com/phnom-penh/dining/elephant-bar

Email: LeRoyal@affles.com

The Angkor What? Bar

The Angkor What? Bar is probably the most popular drinking spot in town. This institution rocks until the early hours of the morning and here you will get great drinks and loud music to dance to.

Photo: Gansstock/Shutterstock.com

Address: Street 8, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 15 999 922

Email: angkorwhatbar@gmail.com

Temple Sky Lounge

Temple Sky Lounge turns into a pub and club after dinnertime. They have a high-quality dance show upstairs, providing a great insight into Cambodian culture. The drinks are cheap, and the dance floor is where it's all happening.

Photo: astarot/Shutterstock.com

Address: 59 Street 08, Krong Siem Reap

Opening hours: Daily 8am-5am

Phone: +855 15 999 922

Martini Bar

The Martini Bar is located at the luxurious hotel La Residence d'Angkor. An extensive martini menu and carefully selected international wines are served in a stylish but relaxed setting with beautiful views over a tropical garden and the river.

Photo: Maksim Fesenko/Shutterstock.com

Address: River Road, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Daily 3pm-midnight
Phone: +855 63 963 390
Internet: www.belmond.com/hotels/asia/cambodia/siem-reap/belmond-la-residence-dangkor/dining

Asana

A traditional Khmer wood house with a nice relaxed atmosphere. They offer fresh and tasty cocktails with a variety of local ingredients. Next to beer, wine and cocktails you can enjoy excellent food. Here you can relax on comfortable seating or in swinging hammocks which give it a real lounge feel

Photo: LiliGraphie/Shutterstock.com
Address: Street 7, Siem Reap
Opening hours: Sun - Sat 6:00 PM - 1:00 AM
Phone: +855 92 987 801
Internet: www.asana-cambodia.com

Picasso Bar & Tapas

In downtown Siem Reap you should go for a drink or two in this bar with an artistic touch. Here you can meet an international crowd of twenty somethings enjoying a fun night out. Don't miss out on the happy hours and check for ongoing events within.

Photo: Jacob Lund/Shutterstock.com
Address: Alley West, Pub Street Alley, Siem Reap
Opening hours: Sun - Wed 1:00 PM - 2:00 AM Thu - Sat 1:00 PM - 3:00 AM

Barcode

Relax in the laid back lounge setting of this chic bar in the heart of Siem Reap. The low light setting and glamorous décor make this gay-friendly bar a must visit for nightlife enthusiasts. If you step in between 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM you can enjoy the happy hour together with a great selection of cocktails, beer and wine.

Photo: Master1305/Shutterstock.com
Address: New Street A, Siem Reap
Phone: +855 70 720 044
Internet: www.barcodesiemreap.com

Miss Wong

This hidden gem in Siem Reap nightlife boasts with an outstanding interior of leather furniture and a wide selection of mixed drinks. Try the variations of tea or delicious cocktails, it's always a good idea to stop by at Miss Wong.

Photo: Rawpixel.com/Shutterstock.com
Address: The-Lane, Siem Reap
Opening hours: Sun 6:00 PM - 12:00 AM Mon - Sat 6:00 PM - 1:00 AM
Phone: +855 92 428 332
Internet: www.misswong.net

SHOPPING

Thor Jorgen Udvang/Shutterstock.com

Siem Reap has a lot to offer in terms of local products, from hand-woven silk scarves to carvings. If you are looking for typical local souvenirs head to the Old Market, where you will find a mix of small crafted silver objects, traditional musical instruments, hand-woven scarves and baskets.

Angkor Night Market

The Angkor Night Market offers an interesting experience for travellers seeking a taste of local culture and craftsmanship. As dusk descends, the market comes alive with a kaleidoscope of colours, fragrances, and sounds, enticing visitors with its array of stalls offering handmade crafts, traditional Cambodian souvenirs, and street food.

Photo: kanhaiskan/Pixabay

Address: Angkor Night Market Street, Siem Reap

Email: info@angkornightmarket.com

Local Arts

For local artists, browse into the Asasax Art Gallery (Pub Street). Paintings of all kinds are also available, mainly around the Old Market, depicting the temples or the former grandeur of the Angkorian Empire.

Photo: Denis Kuvaev/Shutterstock.com

Silk Shopping

Silk is very popular in this provincial town - for high-end silk products head to Artisans d'Angkor, Couleurs D'Asie (Sofitel Royal Angkor) and Carnets D'Asie (Sivatha Street.), which all offer designs made from Cambodian silk.

Photo: athurstock/Shutterstock.com

Address: Sivatha Street, Siem Reap

Angkor Handicraft Association

Want to buy authentic Cambodian souvenirs from fair trade? Then visit this handicraft association in the Trang Village. The non-profit organisation supports craftspeople in the region who create traditional products such as silk, woodcarvings or pottery.

Photo: Thanyawat Rachtiva/Shutterstock.com

Address: Road 60, Trang Village, Sangkat Slorkram, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Daily 9am-6pm

Phone: +855 78 341 454

Internet: www.aha-kh.com

Email: info@aha-kh.com

Khmer Ceramics & Fine Arts Centre

Traditional Khmer pottery can be found everywhere in the area and make an ideal souvenir. Stop by this shop and get glazed pieces of art, plates, pots and much more. The friendly staff will even pack your purchase for a safe journey home.

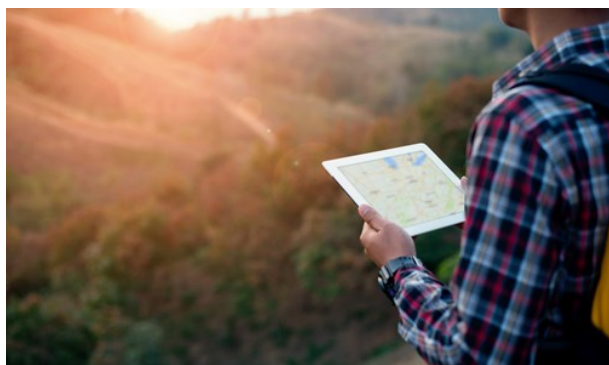

Photo: Courtney Cook/Unsplash

Address: Vithey Charles De Gaulle, Khum Slorkram, Siem Reap

Phone: +855 63 763 782

Internet: <https://khmerceramics.com>

TOURIST INFORMATION

GNT STUDIO/Shutterstock.com

Passport / Visa

Visas to Cambodia are available at airports and land borders, as well as online for citizens of most countries. In order to obtain one, make sure you can provide a passport valid for at least six months and a passport-sized photo for your visa. Visitors from an ASEAN member country do not need a visa to enter Cambodia, as long as they have a valid passport.

It's essential for travellers to check the latest visa requirements and entry regulations from the nearest Cambodian embassy or consulate or through official government channels before planning their trip to Cambodia.

Photo: ConvertKit/Unsplash

Best Time to Visit

Cambodia has rainy weather for half of the year and dry weather for the other half. The seasons can be subdivided into dry-cool (November-January), dry-hot (February-May), rainy-hot (May-September) and rainy-cool (October-November). You will find the best weather in the dry-cool season, with an overall average temperature of 26°C—this is the most popular time to go.

The rainy-cool season can be an alternative if you want to avoid the crowds of tourists—the green landscapes boast beautiful colours during this time. However, so much rain might be uncomfortable for some, and if you are planning day trips, be aware that water may flood the streets and make it impossible to reach smaller, remote places. The rainiest months are August and September.

Photo: Anna Claire Schellenberg/Unsplash

Siem Reap Angkor International Airport (SAI)

Siem Reap Angkor International Airport is situated approximately 45 kilometres away from the city centre. For seamless transfers, the airport provides shuttle bus services, with stops at the CDF Angkor Duty-Free Store and Siem Reap Post Office, both centrally located. In addition, travellers can opt for private taxi services or utilise taxi-booking platforms like Grab for added flexibility and convenience. The journey by car takes around 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Photo: CHUTTERSNAK/Unsplash

Address: Siem Reap Angkor International Airport

Internet: <https://english.sai-airport.com>

Public Transport

Siem Reap's transportation consists mainly of motor-taxi drivers or tuk-tuks. The latter are convenient because they are covered and can seat at least two passengers. Bicycles are also available for rent and are a pleasant way to explore the temples and town.

Photo: Chetan Hireholi/Unsplash

Taxi

Travellers can easily find taxis throughout the city, especially around popular tourist areas such as the Angkor Wat temples and the city centre. In Siem Reap, it is common to book a taxi for a whole day—this is one of the best ways to travel to different sights. Be sure to agree on a price beforehand, if they are not metered. In addition, ride-hailing apps such as Grab are also available in Siem Reap, providing an alternative option for transportation.

Photo: Peter Kasprzyk/Unsplash

Address: Taxi Cambodia Service

Phone: +855 93 633 030

Pharmacy

UCare Pharmacy is a well-known pharmacy chain boasting three outlets in Siem Reap, including the airport. They offer a variety of medications, health and beauty products, as well as pharmaceutical services.

Photo: Diana Polekhina/Unsplash

Address: UCare Pharmacy Old Market - Street 08, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Daily 8am-midnight

Phone: +855 95 888 562

Internet: www.ucarepharmacy.com

Email: info@ucarepharma.com

More Info: The 2nd UCare Pharmacy is located on Sivutha Boulevard

Post

The postal system in Cambodia claims patience from its users. It can take up to several months for a postcard to reach the receiver.

Photo: Ali Bakhtiari/Unsplash

Address: Siem Reap Post Office - 54 Pokambor Avenue, Siem Reap

Opening hours: Daily 7:30am-noon / 2pm-5:30pm

Phone: +855 63 763 433

Telephone

Country Code: +855 Area
Code: 63

Photo: Steve Johnson/Unsplash

Electricity

In Cambodia, the electrical supply operates at a voltage of 220V and a frequency of 50Hz. The country employs three types of electrical plugs:

type A (two flat vertical pins), type C (two round pins) and type G (two round pins with two earth clips on the side).

If you are traveling to Cambodia, it is a good idea to bring a universal adapter to ensure compatibility with various types of outlets you may encounter.

Photo: Mika Baumeister/Unsplash

Population

Around 140,000 (2023)

Currency

Cambodian riel (KHR). The US dollar is also widely used.

Opening hours

Most shops are open daily from 8am–7pm and markets are open from 6am–5pm.

Internet

<https://visitsiemreap.com.kh>

Newspapers

The Cambodia Daily: www.cambodiadaily.com
Khmer Times: www.khmertimeskh.com

Emergency numbers

Ambulance: 119
Police: +855 12 402 424
Fire: +855 12 784 464

7 th January Street	C4 D4	Pokambor Avenue	C3	Street 14	C3
Achamean Street	B3	Sivatha Boulevard	B2 B3 B4 C1 C2	Taphol Road	B2
National Route	A1 A2 B2 D3	Street 02	B2 C2	Vithei Ahasvar Street	C2 C3
Oum Chhay Street	B2 B3	Street 03	B3 C3	Wat Bo Road	C2 C3 C4
Oum Khun Street	B3 C3	Street 05	B3		