

Photo: Visit Denver

Evan Semon/Visit Denver

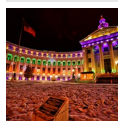

Visit Denver

Scott Dressel Martin/Visit Denver

Nestled at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, Denver is a city brimming with life. With 300 annual days of sunshine, the Mile High City is a year-round destination that seamlessly blends a rich Western heritage and passion for the outdoors with urban excitement. Downtown Denver is home to an array of chef-owned restaurants, brewpubs, professional sports, shops, and family-friendly attractions. Additionally, Denver serves as the premier gateway to the most breathtaking national parks in the Western USA, including Mesa Verde, one of Colorado's four national parks, as well as Wyoming's Yellowstone and Utah's Canyonlands.

Events

Mile High Holidays (Novemb...

The annual holiday season sees Denver awash with excitement, with multiple e...

National Western Stock Sho...

The National Western Stock Show is an annual livestock show and festival hel...

Denver Restaurant Week (March)

Denver has become a must-visit destination for food enthusiasts,

Denver Day of Rock (May)

The Denver Day of Rock is a one-day music festival featuring five open stage...

PrideFest (June)

Denver's annual PrideFest takes place in June, celebrating the culture and h...

Top 5

Mount Evans

Mount Evans is Denver's biggest natural attraction, drawing people from all ...

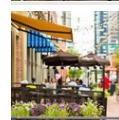

Denver Zoo

An impressive home to over 3,500 animals of over 650 species, the Denver Zoo...

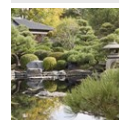

Cherry Creek Bike Trail

Stretching across 40 miles, the Cherry Creek Regional Trail is a scenic path...

Lower Downtown Denver

Referred to as "LoDo" by the locals, Lower Downtown Denver is a markedly sty...

Denver Botanic Gardens

The Denver Botanic Gardens and its satellite locations are a Shakespearean s...

THE CITY

Visit Denver

In the wake of the California Gold Rush, prospectors hoped to strike their own reserve of wealth and riches in the streams of the Rocky Mountains and the South Platte River. Today, citizens of Denver have riches worth far more than precious metal. They have a prosperous city inlaid in the horizons of prairie fields and the mighty Rockies mountainside.

As a part of America's pioneering history, Denver is riddled with historical elements. The Colorado Railroad Museum showcases the city's tenacity in constructing an entirely citizen-built rail system, which connected Denver to the transcontinental railroad. Remnants of the Wild West can be found in areas like the Buffalo Bill Museum and Grave, allowing visitors to step into the Old Western lifestyle. Other landmarks of esteem include the world's largest single producer of coins, the Denver Mint.

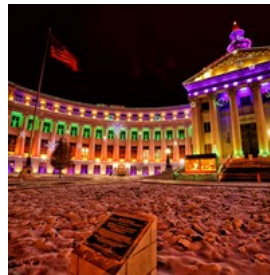

Denver is a city that generously caters to its citizens, boasting an array of parks, trails, gardens, museums, and districts that suit their diverse interests. Additionally, the Mile High City knows how to entertain its inhabitants and visitors alike, as evidenced by its status as the largest beer brewer in the United States.

EVENTS

Visit Denver

Mile High Holidays (November-January)

The annual holiday season sees Denver awash with excitement, with multiple events and activities taking part at precisely this time of year. From theatrical performances to outdoor activities, there is plenty to choose from to suit any taste.

Photo: Nicholas Courtney/Shutterstock.com

National Western Stock Show & Rodeo (January)

The National Western Stock Show is an annual livestock show and festival held every January at the National Western Complex in Denver since 1906. The premier agricultural event of the year showcases the art of professional rodeo, puts on one of the US' largest horse shows, and contributes immensely to the development and support of relevant educational programs.

Photo: Arina P Habich/Shutterstock.com

Internet: nationalwestern.com

Denver Restaurant Week (March)

Denver has become a must-visit destination for food enthusiasts, boasting numerous accolades in the food and beverage industry, including recognition from the prestigious James Beard Foundation. To celebrate local culinary endeavors, many restaurants in Denver offer diners multi-course dinners at set prices of $25, $35, or $45 during the yearly Denver Restaurant Week, where guests can savor the imaginative and thrilling menus that have become a hallmark of the event.

Photo: Visit Denver

Denver Day of Rock (May)

The Denver Day of Rock is a one-day music festival featuring five open stages of live music performances along Denver's 16th Street Mall. Proceeds go to Amp the Cause, a child-based nonprofit organization in Denver.

Photo: Rebecca Todd

Internet:

www.ampthecause.org/our-events/denver-day-of-rock

PrideFest (June)

Denver's annual PrideFest takes place in June, celebrating the culture and heritage of the LGBTQIA+ community in Colorado. The event features over 250 exhibitors, food and beverage vendors, and live performances all weekend long.

Photo: Evan Semon

Cherry Creek Arts Festival (July)

The Cherry Creek Arts Festival is a three-day annual event that aims to showcase art in its many forms, including performances and other entertainment. A large part of the proceeds goes towards supporting local non-profits.

Photo: Bill Florence/Shutterstock.com

Internet: cherrycreekartsfestival.org

Denver 4th of July Weekend

With fireworks, museum exhibitions, concerts, performances, and sporting events, the Denver 4th of July Weekend is a blast to attend for visitors of all ages. See the official program for details.

Photo: Teri Virbickis/Shutterstock.com

Denver Labor Day Weekend (September)

The Labor Day Weekend is marked annually by the Taste of Colorado Festival, museum exhibitions, Colorado Rockies baseball games, and family-friendly events.

Photo: Visit Denver

Denver Beer Week (September)

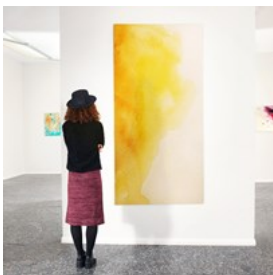

September in Denver is a beer lover's paradise, with nine days of exciting events and happenings celebrating the city's status as America's #1 beer city. From festivals and tap takeovers to rare beer tastings and brewery events, there's something for everyone to enjoy. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to experience the best of Denver's beer culture!

Photo: Evan Semon/Visit Denver

Denver Arts Week (November)

Each November, Denver's art districts come alive with over 300 events that cater to art enthusiasts.

From the intimate galleries and theaters to the iconic museums and unique performing arts venues, there's something for everyone. Explore the vibrant art districts, view stunning museum exhibitions and outdoor sculptures, immerse yourself in the performing arts, get inspired at literary and film events, and even take home some art of your own.

Photo: Africa Studio/Shutterstock.com

DO & SEE

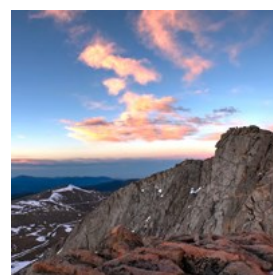

History Colorado Center/Visit Denver

As a city crafted among the natural wonders of the Rocky Mountains and High Plains, much of Denver's appeal resides in exploring its ethereal beauty. It possesses a rich cultural and geographical history, both of which are created via Denver's plethora of museums and natural trails.

Denver offers attractions for all ages: the Denver Museum of Nature & Science, with its dinosaur exhibits, Space Odyssey, a digital planetarium, and IMAX theater; the Denver Performing Arts Complex, home to 10 venues offering theater, opera, symphony, ballet, and Broadway touring shows; History Colorado Center, telling the stories of the past through people and places; Denver Botanic Gardens, a lush oasis in the middle of the city; the Denver Art Museum, with its acclaimed American Indian and Western art collections; and the Clyfford Still Museum, showcasing the work of this American abstract expressionist.

Mount Evans

Mount Evans is Denver's biggest natural attraction, drawing people from all over the country to scale its Scenic Byway and catch glimpses of everything from stunning wildlife to a wonderful view of the cityscape and skyline. Just 60 miles west of Denver, the Mount Evans Scenic Byway is nearly 9,000 feet of adrenaline-fueled elevation gain. It extends from the High Plains all the way to the Mount Evans summit—which lifts to a spectacular 14,000 feet. Native to Mount Evans are birds, mountain goats, Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep, marmots, and alpine wildflowers; three different hiking trails will give you the opportunity to see them: the Walter Pesman Trail, the Walter Pesman Alpine Garden Loop, and the Summit Trail.

Photo: Marina Poushkina/Shutterstock.com

Address: Mount Evans Scenic Byway, Idaho Springs, Denver

More Info: As weather conditions may change rapidly come prepared for any of the following: intense sunlight, cold temperatures, snow, hail and/or rain, high winds, and low oxygen levels.

Denver Zoo

An impressive home to over 3,500 animals of over 650 species, the Denver Zoo is certainly worth a visit. In addition to exhibits like Bird World, Tropical Discovery, Primate Panorama, and Dragons of Komodo, the zoo has added the new Predator Ridge exhibit, which showcases 14 African species of mammals, birds, and reptiles. There is no shortage of astonishment and lasting experiences.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 2300 Steele Street, Denver

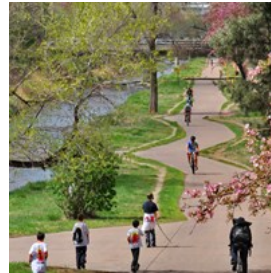

Opening hours: Daily 10am–5pm

Phone: +1 720 337 1400

Internet: denverzoo.org

Email: zooinfo@denverzoo.org

Cherry Creek Bike Trail

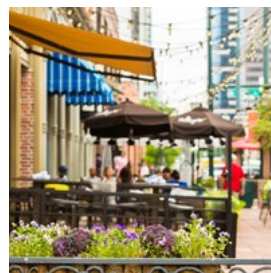

Stretching across 40 miles, the Cherry Creek Regional Trail is a scenic pathway that meanders from Franktown in Douglas County to Confluence Park in Downtown Denver, marking the site where the city was founded after a gold discovery in 1858. Whether you're looking for a leisurely ride while taking in the sights or a rigorous workout, the trail is a perfect choice. Along the way, don't miss the Cherry Creek Shopping District and Four Mile House, and Historic Park, where you can discover the stories of Denver's early pioneers. Plus, you don't have to limit yourself to biking—the trail is also open to walkers and inline skaters.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Lower Downtown Denver

Referred to as “LoDo” by the locals, Lower Downtown Denver is a markedly stylish area of the city. Its charm is garnished by historical brick buildings and the Union Station, while the happening Wazee Street boasts art galleries, shops, restaurants, and cafés. Lower Downtown's nightlife is second to none. Bars and clubs can be found on Market Street—14th to 20th Street to be exact—which close at 2 in the morning.

Photo: Arina P Habich/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1536 Wynkoop Street, Denver

Internet: www.lodo.org

Email: info@lodo.org

Denver Botanic Gardens

The Denver Botanic Gardens and its satellite locations are a Shakespearean sonnet that come to life. Four gardens with four distinctive identities are available for leisure, education, or play. The gardens at York Street serve as a testament to Denver's Western heritage, the gardens at Chatfield possess a rustic peace, the Mount Goliath gardens offer subalpine, alpine, and mountain vistas of Denver while the Mordecai Children's Garden is a land of exploration for kids and families through the seasons.

Photo: Lilac Mountain/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1007 York Street, Denver

Opening hours: Daily 9am-4pm

Phone: +1 720 865 3500

Internet: www.botanicgardens.org

Email: info@botanicgardens.org

Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus

Take a day to watch your kids go "ooo" and "ahh" in amazement at the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus. Open to kids from newborn to age 8, this museum has established itself as an institution within which special activities and events help children learn in a fun way. Interactive "Playscapes," daily programs, and educational exhibits have all been designed for the little ones.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 2121 Children's Museum Drive, Denver

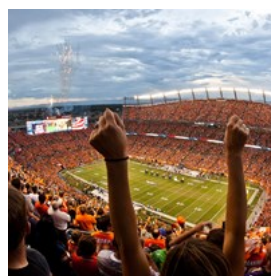

Opening hours: Daily 9am-4pm

Phone: +1 303 433 7444

Internet: www.mychildsmuseum.org

Email: information@cmdenver.org

Empower Field at Mile High

Home to the National Football League's Denver Broncos, Empower Field at Mile High is a newly revamped stadium that impresses even visiting teams. During the months of June, July, and August, public tours are conducted Tuesday through Saturday, and Thursday through Saturday during the remaining months.

Photo: Visit Denver

Address: 1701 Bryant Street, Denver

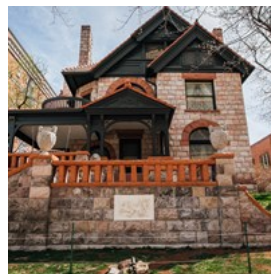

Phone: +1 720 258 3000

Internet: www.empowerfieldatmilehigh.com

More Info: The touring begins at 10 am and lasts until 2 pm.

Reservations are suggested.

Molly Brown House Museum

With a mission "to inspire courage, conviction and proactive change in the spirit of Margaret Brown," this museum provides a fascinating view into the life of Titanic survivor Maggie "Molly" Brown. As one of only several national sites that explore a woman's story, this Victorian Mansion has been restored and maintained to keep a part of Denver's history alive and well.

Photo: Rebecca Todd

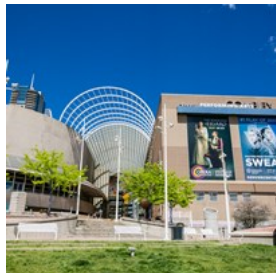

Address: 1340 Pennsylvania Street, Denver

Opening hours: Wed-Sun 10am-4pm

Phone: +1 303 832 4092

Internet: mollybrown.org

Denver Center for the Performing Arts

This performing arts center features the Tony Award-winning Denver Center Theatre Company, which takes the stage to world premiers, revivals, and classic favorites. Cabaret and musical tours can be found with the Denver Center Attractions. Backstage tours and even acting classes are held, and the Seawell Grand Ballroom holds galas and receptions.

Photo: Rebecca Todd

Address: 1101 13th Street, Denver

Phone: +1 303 893 4100

Internet: www.denvercenter.org

Email: tickets@dcpa.org

More Info: Box Office is in the lobby of the Helen Bonfils Theatre Complex lobby, located at the northwest corner of the Denver Performing Arts Complex at Speer Boulevard & Arapahoe Street.

Denver Art Museum (DAM)

Immerse yourself in art from all corners of the globe at this enchanting art museum. With over 70,000 diverse works spanning centuries and continents, the DAM stands as one of the largest art museums between the West Coast and Chicago. Delve into a range of artistic styles, from European classics to modern masterpieces, South and Central American treasures, and Native American artifacts. And don't miss the design, architecture, graphics, textile, and fashion galleries. Be sure to check out the museum's upcoming exhibitions and special events.

Photo: Visit Denver

Address: 100 West 14th Avenue Parkway, Denver

Opening hours: Wed-Mon 10am-5pm, Tue 10am-9pm

Phone: +1 720 865 5000

Internet: www.denverartmuseum.org/en

Email: info@denverartmuseum.org

Washington Park

Washington Park is characterized by extensive green areas, which make the park a great option for a day out. Make this walk in the park a bit special by renting a two-seater recumbent bike and seeing the park from a different perspective. There are many different activities to be found here, but sometimes just bringing a nice picnic is enough.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: Louisiana Avenue & Downing, Denver

Internet: www.denver.org/listing/washington-park/6828

Stranahan's Whiskey Distillery

Embark on a tour of Stranahan's Whiskey Distillery and experience the delicious and smooth American single malt whiskey, crafted in the heart of Colorado. Discover the intricate and fascinating process behind whiskey production through an entertaining and informative tour. You will also have the chance to sample a variety of their products, including delightful whiskey-based cocktails.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 200 South Kalamath Street, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Thu noon-7pm, Fri-Sun noon-8pm

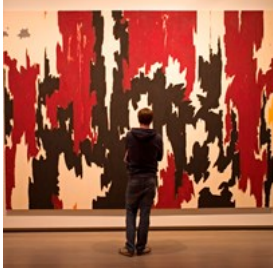

Phone: +1 303 296 7440

Internet: stranahans.com

Email: info@stranahans.com

More Info: Reservations are recommended

Clyfford Still Museum

Visitors to this museum are in for a treat, as it offers a truly unique opportunity to delve into the life and legacy of Clyfford Still, an artist whose work has long been shrouded in mystery and kept hidden from public view. With this award-winning museum, you can finally gain insight into what inspired him and explore his art from a fresh perspective. It houses an extensive collection of nearly everything Clyfford Still created, allowing you to experience the full range of his creativity. Immerse yourself in nine stunning galleries of Still's art and discover more about this groundbreaking artist who forged his own distinctive style of painting.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 1250 Bannock Street, Denver

Opening hours: Tue-Sun 10am-5pm

Phone: +1 720 354 4880

Internet: clyffordstillmuseum.org

Email: info@clyffordstillmuseum.org

Denver Museum of Nature & Science

The Denver Museum of Nature & Science is the city's premier destination for all things natural history and science. With a wide range of exhibitions, a planetarium, and lectures, this museum invites visitors to delve into the fascinating world of science. Experience the wonders of the cosmos, marvel at dazzling gems and minerals, catch an IMAX film, and be awed by a planetarium show. If you're feeling brave, get up close to a T-Rex and witness its sheer power and majesty. Whether you're a science enthusiast or simply curious about the world around us, the Denver Museum of Nature & Science is sure to captivate and inspire.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 2001 Colorado Boulevard, Denver

Opening hours: Sat-Thu 9am-5pm, Fri 9am-9pm

Phone: +1 303 370 6000

Internet: www.dmns.org

Colorado State Capitol

The Colorado State Capitol Building is the home of the Colorado General Assembly and the offices of the Governor of Colorado and Lieutenant Governor of Colorado. An interesting fact about the building is that its interior is adorned with what is believed to be the entire known supply of Colorado Rose Onyx, a rare rose marble from a quarry near Beulah, Colorado.

If you're interested in exploring the Colorado State Capitol building, free guided tours are available on weekdays at 10am, 11am, 1pm, and 2pm. However, please note that Capitol tours are limited to 20 people and operate on a first come, first served basis.

Photo: f11photo/Shutterstock.com

Address: 200 East Colfax Avenue, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 7:30am-5pm

Phone: +1 303 866 2604

Internet: capitol.colorado.gov

More Info: All tours begin at the Visitor Information Desk, north side, first floor.

Forney Museum of Transportation

The Forney Museum of Transportation is home to a priceless and unique collection of more than 600 artifacts relating to historical transportation, including vintage cars, motorcycles, trains, and bicycles.

Photo: ABC Photo/Shutterstock.com

Address: 4303 Brighton Boulevard, Denver

Opening hours: Mon & Thu-Sat 10am-5pm; Sun noon-5pm

Phone: +1 303 297 1113

Internet: www.forneymuseum.org

Wings Over the Rockies Air & Space Museum

Housed on the former Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, the Wings Over the Rockies Air and Space Museum holds an impressive collection of various aircraft, from actual military planes to an X-wing Fighter from Star Wars. Some of the museum volunteers are actual war veterans and have first-hand experience with the artifacts on display.

Photo: Ogovorka/Shutterstock.com

Address: 7711 East Academy Boulevard, Denver

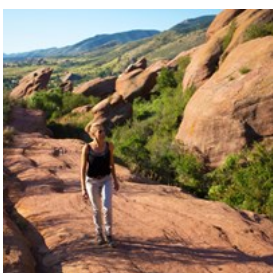

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-5pm, Sun noon-5pm

Phone: +1 303 360 5360

Internet: wingsmuseum.org

Email: info@wingsmuseum.org

Rocky Mountain Adventures

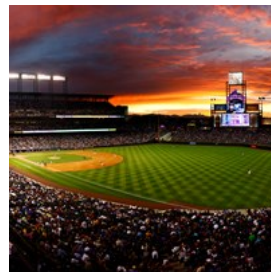

The Rocky Mountains are Denver's backyard playground, offering outdoor adventures, spectacular beauty, and Old West history just a short drive from Denver. Red Rocks Park & Amphitheatre is a local favorite for hiking amid the giant boulders, but Red Rocks is even more loved for its unforgettable concerts under the stars.

Nearby Golden is home to the famous Coors Brewery, where visitors get tours and free samples. Rocky Mountain National Park, just 114 kilometers from Denver, features amazing wildlife, hiking trails, and spectacular vistas. Mount Evans Scenic Byway (96 kilometers from Denver) is the highest paved road in North America, winding its way to a 4,346-meter summit. And, come winter, Denver is the gateway to some of the world's best skiing and snow sports.

Photo: Visit Denver

Coors Field

Denver's beloved Major League Baseball team, the Colorado Rockies plays home games in the heart of downtown Denver at Coors Field, which offers the nostalgic feel of a classic ballpark mixed with state-of-the-art technology.

The season runs from April to September.

"Behind the Seams" tours of Coors Field are available Monday through Saturday during the season and then Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday during the offseason and provide a behind-the-scenes look at one of the premier ballparks in Major League Baseball. Also, don't miss the Sandlot, a brewery in Coors Field that is open year-round.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 2001 Blake Street, Denver

Phone: +1 303 292 0200

Internet: www.mlb.com/rockies/ballpark

Red Rocks Park & Amphitheatre

Red Rocks Park & Amphitheatre is a one-of-a-kind open-air amphitheater built into a giant rock structure.

During the day, Red

Rocks is a free city park with easy hiking trails and a visitor center that includes a Performers' Hall of Fame. Legendary musicians like The Beatles and U2 have performed here, and today, the summer concert series from May through October presents the best artists in jazz, rock, pop, bluegrass, and more. Seeing a concert under the stars is a magical experience.

Photo: Red Rocks

Address: 18300 West Alameda Parkway, Morrison

Opening hours: Daily 9am-5pm

Phone: +1 720 865 2494

Internet: www.redrocksonline.com

Royal Gorge Bridge & Park

The Royal Gorge Bridge, south of Denver, is one of the largest suspension bridges in the world. The trip here is worth it not just for the spectacular views but also for the plethora of activities available in the area. These include gondola rides, as well as bungee jumping and ziplining for those seeking a more adventurous experience.

Photo: Photostravellers/Shutterstock.com

Address: 4218 County Road 3A, Cañon City

Phone: +1 719 275 7507

Internet: royalgorgebridge.com

Email: rgb@royalgorgebridge.com

DINING

Adam Larkey/Visit Denver

The city's farm-to-table epicenter, Larimer Square buzzes with outdoor dining and a twinkling canopy of lights. Denver Union Station — the city's elegant transit hub — is a foodie destination as well. The historic building houses many restaurants and bars, including Mercantile Dining & Provision, a unique restaurant-market combination.

Rock Bottom Restaurant & Brewery

If you're looking for a great spot to catch all the action of Denver's professional sports scene while enjoying some house beers and creative pub grub, then head to the Rock Bottom. This award-winning craft brewery and restaurant is ideally located within a mile of all three major teams, making it the perfect place to watch games and celebrate after the final whistle.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 1001 16th Street Mall A-100, Denver

Opening hours: Mon & Tue 11am-11pm, Wed & Thu

11am-midnight, Fri & Sat 11am-1am, Sun 11am-10pm

Phone: +1 720 452 9640

Internet: rockbottom.com

More Info: Located in Independence Plaza

Mercantile Dining & Provision

James Beard award-winning Chef Alex Seidel leads the team at Mercantile Dining and Provision, where they specialize in serving comfort food with a modern and elevated twist. The restaurant is dedicated to providing a true farm-to-table culinary experience. By emphasizing the importance of every step in the process, Mercantile aims to promote a deeper appreciation for the hard work and dedication that goes into every dish they serve.

Photo: Adam Larkey

Address: 1701 Wynkoop Street, Suite 155, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Thu 8am-9pm; Fri 8am-10pm; Sat 9am-2pm / 5pm-10pm; Sun 9am-2pm

Phone: +1 720 460 3733

Internet: www.mercantiledenver.com

Email: info@mercantiledenver.com

Wynkoop Brewing Company

Colorado's first brewpub, Wynkoop Brewing Company — co-founded in 1988 by former Denver Mayor and Colorado Gov. John Hickenlooper — produced 4,330 barrels of fresh beer in 1997, earning it a place among the largest brewpubs in the world. This unique and well-established brewery offers freshly brewed-onsite beer, hearty pub fare, live comedy, and a BCA-sanctioned billiards parlor.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 1634 18th Street, Denver

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 11am-midnight, Fri & Sat 11am-1am

Phone: +1 303 297 2700

Internet: wynkoop.com

Ophelia's Electric Soapbox

Located in the historic Airedale Building, Ophelia's is a unique nod to its muse and master of the boudoir, Ophelia. This Victorian brownstone building has had a colorful past as a brothel, sex shop, and peep show before being transformed into the gastrobrothel it is today. Ophelia's is a haven for foodies and cocktail connoisseurs alike, with an eclectic mix of American cuisine and handcrafted cocktails made with fresh, local ingredients. They also offer four-kegged cocktails and a 24-tap draft line of all-Colorado beers, plus live music that adds to the already vibrant atmosphere.

Photo: Adam Larkey

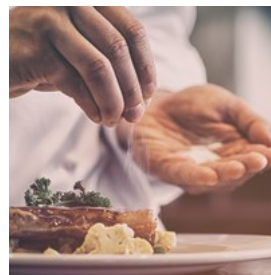

Address: 1215 20th Street, Denver

Opening hours: Tue-Thu 5pm-midnight; Fri 5pm-1am; Sat 10am-2pm / 5pm-1am; Sun 10am-2am

Phone: +1 303 993 8023

Internet: opheliasdenver.com

Beckon

At Beckon, you'll take a seat at the counter to engage in an eight-course meal, served by chefs that will concoct dishes inspired by Scandinavian and American cuisine. Their menu changes seasonally and reservations are required to join.

Photo: vectorfusionart/Shutterstock.com

Address: 2843 Larimer Street, Denver

Opening hours: Wed-Sat 5pm-10pm

Phone: +1 303 749 0020

Internet: beckon-denver.com

Email: contact@beckon-denver.com

The Wolf's Tailor

If you're looking for an unforgettable dining experience, look no further than The Wolf's Tailor. This acclaimed restaurant has earned a reputation for its exceptional and creative dishes, which blend influences from Italian and Japanese cuisine with local ingredients and even wild game. To avoid disappointment, it's recommended that you make a reservation well in advance of your visit, as this popular eatery is often fully booked.

Photo: Top Photo Corporation/Shutterstock.com

Address: 4058 Tejon Street, Denver

Opening hours: Tue-Sun 5pm-9pm

Phone: +1 720 456 6705

Internet: www.thewolfstailor.com

ChopHouse & Brewery Denver

The Coors Field baseball stadium is a neighbor to this well-known steakhouse in Downtown Denver. With an extensive menu of fine dining and wines, they top things off with handcrafted beers that they brew on-site. Happy hours and weekend brunches are supplementary.

Photo: Jacek Chabraszewski/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1735 19th Street, Suite 100, Denver

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 11am-10pm, Fri & Sat 11am-11pm

Phone: +1 303 296 0800

Internet: www.denverchophouse.com

Rioja

Rioja, a Mediterranean restaurant located in the heart of downtown Denver, is headed by none other than James Beard award-winning chef Jennifer Jasinski. With her extensive culinary experience, including a finalist position on Top Chef Masters, Chef Jasinski is committed to creating a menu that features imaginative dishes inspired by Mediterranean ingredients, while also incorporating locally sourced and seasonal products. Thanks to her dedication to excellence and her innovative approach to cooking, Rioja is widely regarded as one of Denver's premier dining destinations.

Photo: Rioja/VISIT DENVER

Address: 1431 Larimer Street, Denver

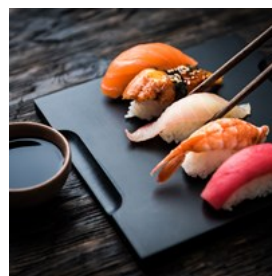

Opening hours: Mon-Thu 11am-10 pm, Fri 11am-11pm, Sat 10am-11pm, Sun 10am-10pm

Phone: +1 303 820 2282

Internet: www.riojadenver.com

Email: info@riojadenver.com

Sushi Den

Sushi Den is a top destination for those seeking exceptional Japanese cuisine in Denver. With an extensive wine, sake, and champagne list, this restaurant has something for everyone. Guests can indulge in their sushi happy hour, which features a variety of hand-crafted sushi rolls, as well as their catch of the day, which is flown in fresh from Tokyo daily. In addition to its signature sushi, Sushi Den offers a range of delicious dishes such as tempura shrimp, Udon soup, and teriyaki.

Photo: In Green/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1487 South Pearl Street, Denver
Opening hours: Tue–Thu 5pm–9:30pm, Fri & Sat
4:30pm–10pm, Sun 4:30pm–9pm, Mon closed
Phone: +1 303 777 0826
Internet: www.sushiden.net
Email: info@sushiden.net

Denver Central Market

The Denver Central Market is a gourmet marketplace and food hall in the RiNo district of Denver featuring a variety of local vendors, including a bakery, coffee shop, fish market, butcher, rotisserie, chocolate shop, ice cream, wood-fired pizza, salad, and sandwiches, plus an outstanding bar, serving cocktails, beer, and wine.

Photo: James Florio/Visit Denver
Address: 2669 Larimer Street, Denver
Opening hours: Sun–Thu 8am–9pm, Fri & Sat 8am–11pm
Internet: www.denvercentralmarket.com

Linger

Linger is not your typical restaurant. It used to be a mortuary, but now it's a vibrant eatery that serves global street food from almost every corner of the world. From Asian dishes, including some lesser-known cuisines like Mongolian, to food from the Americas, Africa, and the Middle East, Linger has something for everyone. The restaurant also boasts a rooftop lounge that offers breathtaking views of the Denver skyline.

Photo: VISIT DENVER
Address: 2030 West 30th Avenue, Denver
Phone: +1 303 993 3120
Internet: www.ediblebeats.com/linger

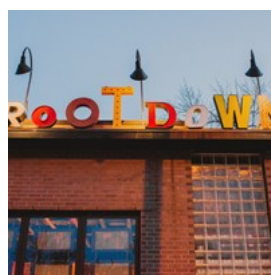

Avanti Food & Beverage

Avanti Food & Beverage is a food hall located in the popular LoHi neighborhood of Denver. Housed inside a shipping container, this trendy spot offers an eclectic range of affordable food options that are sure to satisfy your cravings. From pizza to sushi, Avanti Food & Beverage has it all, making it the perfect spot to visit with friends or family. But that's not all - Avanti Food & Beverage also boasts a fantastic rooftop bar that offers stunning views of the surrounding area.

Photo: Visit Denver
Address: 3200 North Pecos Street, Denver
Opening hours: Mon–Thu 11am–11pm, Fri & Sat 11am–1am, Sun 11am–10pm
Phone: +1 720 269 4778
Internet: avantifandb.com/home
Email: info@avantifandb.com

Root Down

Housed in a converted filling station, Root Down is a vibrant eatery serving imaginative, globally-influenced seasonal cuisine that showcases the best of organic, natural, and locally-sourced ingredients. Much of the furniture and décor is made from recycled or reclaimed materials, giving the space a unique and eclectic feel.

Photo: VISIT DENVER
Address: 1600 West 33rd Avenue, Denver
Opening hours: Mon–Wed 5pm–9pm; Thu & Fri 5pm–10pm; Sat 10am–2:30pm / 5pm–10pm; Sun 10am–2:30pm / 5pm–9pm
Phone: +1 303 993 4200

Internet: www.ediblebeats.com/root-down
Email: hello@ediblebeats.com

The Source

The Source Hotel's culinary complex is built around two expansive market halls, each filled with a diverse array of artisanal vendors.

Whether you're in the mood for freshly baked goods, wood-fired pizza, or innovative cuisine cooked over an open flame, you'll find plenty of options to choose from. In addition to its impressive food offerings, the complex also features a range of other amenities, including a barber shop, retail stores selling goods and apparel, a florist, and even a brewery and barbecue joint.

Photo: Adam Larkey/VISIT DENVER
Address: 3330 Brighton Boulevard, Denver
Phone: +1 720 409 1200
Internet: www.thesourcehotel.com/markethall

5280 Burger Bar

5280 Burger Bar prides itself on offering the finest, chef-crafted burgers, salads, appetizers, and sides, all made using the highest-quality seasonal ingredients from Colorado. Their buns are made fresh in-house all day long, ensuring that each burger is served on a perfectly soft and fresh bun. And with each burger coming with its own homemade sauces and toppings, you're sure to find something that suits your taste buds perfectly. Plus, their housemade ice creams and selection of craft beer are the perfect accompaniment to your meal, and the casual, contemporary setup makes it a great place to hang out with friends or family.

Photo: 5280/Visit Denver
Address: 500 16th Street Mall, Suite 160, Denver
Opening hours: Sun-Thu 11:30am-8:30pm, Fri & Sat 11:30am-9:30pm
Phone: +1 303 825 1020
Internet: www.5280burgerbar.com
Email: info@5280burgerbar.com

Biker Jim's Gourmet Dogs

If you're looking for a unique hot dog dining experience, look no further than Biker Jim's Gourmet Dogs. This place offers exotic meats like reindeer and wild boar brats, rattlesnake and pheasant, elk and antelope, yak, and buffalo, paired with a variety of toppings that will tantalize your taste buds. What sets Biker Jim's apart is that a majority of their brats are locally raised and produced by artisan sausage makers, ensuring a high level of quality and freshness. This commitment to sourcing only the best ingredients has earned them a reputation among locals and made them a must-visit spot for those new to the area.

Photo: Olga Nayashkova/Shutterstock.com
Address: 2148 Larimer Street, Denver
Opening hours: Daily 11am-10pm
Phone: +1 720 746 9355
Internet: bikerjimsgods.com

CAFÉS

Visit Denver

One simply cannot find a better setting for enjoying a good cup of coffee than Denver's many mountainside cafés. Some solely specialize in serving breakfast, so rest assured that breakfast is taken seriously at such establishments. The usuals, such as coffee and tea, are something that you can, of course, expect to find in any single one of them.

Huckleberry Roasters

Huckleberry Roasters is a café with character and finesse in the lobby of the Maven Hotel within LoDo (Lower Downtown) Denver's Dairy Block development. The place is recognizable for its aroma of freshly roasted beans combined with an inviting atmosphere. What makes it even more special is the instructive experience that you can have, learning more about the art of coffee production and its significance in daily life.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 1800 Wazee Street, Denver

Opening hours: Daily 7am-5pm

Phone: +1 866 558 2201

Internet: huckleberryroasters.com

Email: info@huckleberryroasters.com

Crema Bodega

Located in Denver's Central Market in the hip RiNo (River North) neighborhood, Crema Bodega serves coffee from some of the finest small-batch roasters in the country, as well as bottled drinks to pair with any food bought to eat in their industrial-chic hangout.

Photo: James Florio

Address: 2669 Larimer Street, Denver

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 8am-5pm, Fri & Sat 8am-7pm

Lucile's Creole Café

Lucile's is a local family-run establishment serving Cajun-Creole breakfasts & lunches in a lovely atmosphere. Happiness often comes in the form of a freshly baked pastry, such as their homemade crispy beignets.

Photo: Africa Studio/Shutterstock.com

Address: 275 South Logan Street, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 7am-2pm, Sat & Sun 8am-2pm

Phone: +1 303 282 6258

Internet: www.luciles.com

Pigtrain Coffee

Fuel your journey at this Denver Union Station coffee spot that serves up locally roasted beans from Conscious Coffee along with bhakti chai, Italian sodas, pastries, empanadas, breakfast burritos, and even coffee cocktails. In the mood for something sweet? Order the affogato — a scoop of ice cream with a shot of hot espresso poured over the top.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 1701 Wynkoop Street, Denver

Opening hours: Daily 7am-7pm

Phone: +1 720 460 3708

Internet: www.pigtraincoffee.com

Email: info@pigtraincoffee.com

Cuba Cuba Sandwicheria

Looking to indulge in an authentic Cuban sandwich or cocktail? Look no further than Cuba Cuba Sandwicheria! Here you can enjoy a wide selection of delectable sandwiches and dishes, such as lechon asado (slow-roasted pork, garlic mojo, and sautéed onion) and ropa vieja (slow-cooked shredded beef, tomato, onion, and peppers), plus quality drinks like sangria, mojito, and Cuba Cuba Margarita, which will surely transport you to the Caribbean with their refreshing flavors.

Photo: Brent Hofacker/Shutterstock.com

Address: 8261 Northfield Boulevard, Denver

Opening hours: Daily 11am-8pm

Phone: +1 720 389 5221

Internet: cubacubasandwicheria.com

Email: cherrycreek@cubacubasandwicheria.com

Stella's Coffee Haus

Located in an old home with a charming front porch, Stella's Coffee House is a popular spot for coffee, tea, and treats. There's plenty of seating space, including a patio where you can enjoy the crisp Denver breeze.

Photo: Ekaterina Pokrovsky/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1476 South Pearl Street, Denver

Opening hours: Daily 7am-10pm

Phone: +1 303 777 5684

Internet: www.stellascOFFEE.com

Email: hello@stellascOFFEE.com

Snooze, an A.M. Eatery

Calling itself "an A.M. Eatery," Snooze is your one-stop dining experience to start off your day of touring and travels. They hand-select their produce in order to cook only natural food, with all dishes made in the kitchen from scratch. Along with a seasonal menu of creative breakfast, Snooze also offers lunch fare. There are multiple locations in Denver, so be sure to check the website for the Snooze closest to you.

Photo: Matt + Jess Photography/Visit Denver

Address: 1701 Wynkoop Street, Suite 150, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 6:30am-2:30pm, Sat & Sun 6:30am-4pm

Phone: +1 303 825 3536

Internet: www.snoozeeatery.com

Email: eggme@snoozeeatery.com

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Evan Semon/Visit Denver

Denver is a city rife with the expectation of having a good time. Its vibrant nightlife scene lives up to the unspoken promise, especially in the South of Colfax nightlife district and the bustling clubs and bars of Larimer Square. Denver has an eclectic, even sultry mix of venues for your post-sunset adventures. With more breweries in the Denver Metropolitan area than in any other city in the USA, the beer culture is thriving, innovative, and laid-back.

Microbreweries take advantage of Colorado's pure mountain water to produce over 200 different beers every day. Whether you're in the mood for jazz lounges or sports bars, Denver's mountainous nightlife scene is sure to delight you.

Hi-Dive

to bluegrass.

Hi-Dive is a hip and trendy venue offering cheap drinks and live music performances by both local and national artists ranging from punk

Photo: VISIT DENVER
Address: 7 South Broadway, Denver
Opening hours: Daily 4pm-2am
Phone: +1 303 733 0230
Internet: hi-dive.com
Email: booking@hi-dive.com

Lannie's Clocktower Cabaret

Toss things up a bit with a trip to this extravagant cabaret, located in the historic D&F Clocktower in Denver's hotel, shopping, and theater district. The décor is corporeal, the cocktails are refreshing, the appetizers and desserts are mouthwatering, and the entertainment speaks for itself. Nightly events take place, featuring anything from burlesque comedy acts to carnival, mambo, and world rhythm dance shows.

Photo: VISIT DENVER
Address: 1601 Arapahoe Street, Denver
Phone: +1 303 293 0075

Internet: www.clocktowercabaret.com
Email: boxoffice@clocktowercabaret.com

The Grizzly Rose

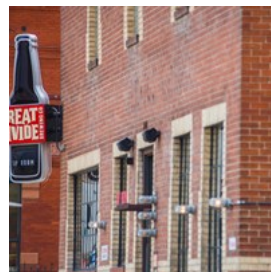

The Grizzly Rose is Denver's premier country bar, nightclub, and dance hall, having hosted legends like Faith Hill, Garth Brooks, Willie Nelson, and Brooks & Dunn, among other notable acts. The venue offers country music concerts, line dancing, beers, and even a mechanical bull to test your skills.

Photo: Stokkete/Shutterstock.com
Address: 5450 Lincoln Street, Denver
Opening hours: Wed 6pm-midnight, Thu-Sat 6pm-2am, Sun 6pm-midnight
Phone: +1 303 295 2353
Internet: grizzlyrose.com

Great Divide Brewery

One of the breweries that go back to the days when Denver's beer brewing scene was only just coming into existence, Great Divide is a place to pick and choose from a variety of local beers as well as take a tour of the brewery itself. Guided tours are held regularly.

Photo: VISIT DENVER
Address: 2201 Arapahoe Street, Denver
Opening hours: Sun-Tue noon-8pm, Wed-Sat noon-10pm
Phone: +1 303 296 9460
Internet: greatdivide.com
Email: info@greatdivide.com

Cruise Room

This award-winning cocktail lounge located in The Oxford Hotel appears frozen in time since its Art Deco facelift in 1933.

The Cruise Room was fashioned after a lounge on the Queen Mary, with original chrome and neon reflecting onto wall panels depicting light-hearted "toasts" from around the world.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 1600 17th Street, Denver

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 5pm-10pm, Fri & Sat 5pm-11pm

Phone: +1 303 825 1107

Internet: www.theoxfordhotel.com/eat-drink/the-cruise-room

Email: reservations@theoxfordhotel.com

Blue Moon Brewing Company

Pull up a barstool and indulge in some elevated global cuisine plus more than 20 rotating taps in an easygoing and laid-back atmosphere at this popular brewery and restaurant located in the trendy RiNo (River North) Art District.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 3750 Chestnut Place, Denver

Opening hours: Tue-Thu 11am-9pm, Fri & Sat 11am-10pm, Sun 11am-7pm

Phone: +1 303 728 2337

Internet: www.blumoonrino.com

Denver Beer Co

Good beer is best enjoyed with friends, fresh air, and a bit of adventurous spirit to sharpen the palate. Located in the Riverfront neighborhood just west of downtown, Denver Beer Co. specializes in artisan and seasonal varieties of premium ales and lagers made from the best ingredients around. The tap list is constantly changing - you may get the fan-favorite Graham Cracker Porter, the delectable Peach Saison, or the hoppier-than-thou Fresh Hop IPA. They're all fantastic examples of great Denver beer. The patio is always a happening place to enjoy great beer and some Mile High City sunshine.

Photo: Evan Semon

Address: 1695 Platte Street, Denver

Phone: +1 720 279 8247

Internet: denverbeerco.com

Cooper Lounge

Situated on the mezzanine of Denver Union Station with a view overlooking the Great Hall, The Cooper Lounge exudes the elegance and refinement of the 1930s post-prohibition era lounges. This chic and contemporary establishment offers premium cocktails, apéritifs, and wine, complemented by upscale snacks and cheeses. The venue's grand arched windows provide breathtaking vistas of Downtown Denver, making for a truly unforgettable experience.

Photo: Rebecca Todd

Address: 1701 Wynkoop Street, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 4pm-midnight, Sat & Sun 11am-midnight

Phone: +1 720 460 3738

Internet: cooperlounge.com

Email: info@cooperlounge.com

Ratio Beerworks

Ratio Beerworks, situated in the vibrant RiNo (River North) neighborhood, is dedicated to producing exquisitely crafted beer.

The brewery's assortment features a diverse range of classic styles infused with a contemporary touch. The co-founders of Ratio Beerworks have deep roots in the punk rock music scene and sought to embody the industry's essence of community, do-it-yourself spirit, and strong musical influences through the beer and taproom experience.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 2920 Larimer Street, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Wed noon-11pm, Thu & Fri noon-midnight, Sat 11am-midnight, Sun 11am-11pm

Phone: +1 303 997 8288

Email: hello@ratiobeerworks.com

Nocturne

Nestled in the heart of Denver's vibrant RiNo Arts District is Nocturne, a unique lounge and eatery that seamlessly blends culinary, cocktail, and musical arts to create an unparalleled experience. Housed within a beautifully restored warehouse, Nocturne invites guests to savor eclectic plates and cocktails while immersing themselves in the soothing melodies of live jazz music. Whether you're seeking a romantic night out or a lively evening with friends, Nocturne promises to transport you to a world of sophistication and refinement.

Photo: Rebecca Todd

Address: 1330 27th Street, Denver

Opening hours: Wed-Sun 6pm-10pm

Phone: +1 303 295 3333

Internet: nocturnejazz.com

Email: info@nocturnejazz.com

Bluebird Theater

Built back in 1913, the Bluebird Theater was originally a movie house before being redone in 1994, reopening as the music mecca that we know today. Located on East Colfax and fronted by a not-to-be-missed neon-style marquee, this venue is an intimate affair hosting emerging and steady touring acts alike. The 500-capacity tiered layout venue makes it so there are truly no bad views.

Photo: VISIT DENVER

Address: 3317 East Colfax Avenue, Denver

Phone: +1 303 377 1666

Internet: www.bluebirdtheater.net

SHOPPING

Evan Semon/Visit Denver

The backdrop of stupendous mountain ranges only adds to the well-maintained and well-equipped shopping centers and districts of Denver. Many are incredibly walker- and biker-friendly, making the shopping experience not only a happy one but a healthy one as well. Try the high-end Cherry Creek Shopping District, with both indoor and outdoor options, and the 16th Street Mall, where you'll find all of your favorite American brands.

If a unique, local shopping experience is your thing, then check out the boutique shops at Larimer Square right in the heart of downtown Denver. You'll find a range of high-quality and distinctive local designers offering clothing, accessories, jewelry, wine, chocolate, home goods, and salon and spa services.

16th Street Mall

Because of its identity as a "pedestrian" mall, the 16th Street Mall is walker-friendly with an abundance of trees and plazas. At only a mile long, it has plenty to occupy your day with — from outdoor cafés, shops, restaurants, and retail stores, to fantastic glass-lined skyscrapers and historic office buildings. Its promenade is beautifully adorned with red and gray granite, and it's conveniently located in the center of Downtown Denver.

In case you don't feel like walking, they offer a free gas-powered bus that takes you from one end to the other, giving you convenient access to its stores and eateries.

Photo: Sopotnicki/Shutterstock.com
Address: 1001 16th Street Mall, Denver
Opening hours: 24/7
Phone: +1 303 534 6161
Internet: www.the16thstreetmall.com

Cherry Creek Shopping Center

Located just minutes from Downtown Denver, Cherry Creek Shopping Center is the Rocky Mountain region's premier shopping destination. Known for its unique blend of luxury and specialty stores, Cherry Creek Center boasts over 160 shops, including more than 40 stores exclusive to the area, such as Zara, Neiman Marcus, Tiffany & Co., Louis Vuitton, and Burberry. But Cherry Creek Center is not just about shopping - it has so much more to offer. The mall also features an eight-screen movie theater, weekly seasonal farmers markets, and a variety of eateries and cafés, perfect for those looking to take a break from shopping. And for families with kids, the indoor "play park" with fun and Looney Tunes characters make it an excellent child-friendly destination.

Photo: CSCC/Visit Denver
Address: 3000 East 1st Avenue, Denver
Opening hours: Mon-Thu 10am-8pm, Fri & Sat 10am-9pm, Sun 11am-6pm
Phone: +1 303 388 3900
Internet: shopcherrycreek.com
Email: cherrycreek@taubman.com

Denver Pavilions

Nestled in the heart of Downtown Denver, Denver Pavilions is an open-air mall that offers a one-stop shopping and entertainment destination. Featuring everything from popular international brands to locally-owned boutiques, the mall has over 40 stores and restaurants, all housed in one convenient location. In addition to shopping and dining, Denver Pavilions has a range of entertainment options for visitors. Movie enthusiasts can catch the latest releases at the movie theater, while those who enjoy more active pursuits can head to the bowling alley for a fun game with friends. And for those who love live music and dancing, Live at Jack's is a great spot to let loose and have some fun.

Photo: Steve Crecelius/Visit Denver
Address: 500 16th Street Mall, Denver
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-7pm, Sun 11am-6pm
Phone: +1 303 260 6001
Internet: www.denverpavilions.com
Email: info@denverpavilions.com

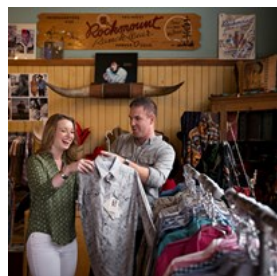

Cherry Creek North

Championed by Denver citizens as one of the city's premier shopping hotspots, Cherry Creek North features an impressive collection of stores that spans fashion retail, art galleries, salons and spas, jewelry, home furnishing stores, and restaurants. They all come together in the outdoor mall's convenient location of just 5 minutes from Downtown Denver.

Photo: Evan Semon/Visit Denver
Address: 2401 East 2nd Avenue, Suite 150, Denver
Phone: +1 303 394 2904
Internet: cherrycreeknorth.com
Email: info@cherrycreeknorth.com

Rockmount Ranch Wear

An absolute must is to stop by Rockmount Ranch Wear in the LoDo district. This shop pioneered and helped popularize American Western wear across the world. They invented the famous snap-button shirt worn by icons such as Elvis Presley, Robert Redford, Woody Harrelson, and Kiefer Sutherland. It's still part of Rockmount's classic, core American look as they fuse it with modern fashion.

Photo: Visit Denver
Address: 1626 Wazee Street, Denver
Opening hours: Mon-Fri 8am-5pm, Sat 10am-6pm, Sun 11am-4pm
Phone: +1 303 629 7777
Internet: rockmount.com

Tattered Cover (Union Station)

A true Colorado landmark, this locally owned bookstore has been serving the community since 1971. With many locations around the city, Tattered Cover offers personal service, an extraordinary selection of new and used books, coffee shops, extensive newsstands, and even author appearances.

Photo: Tattered Cover/Visit Denver
Address: 1701 Wynkoop Street, Denver
Opening hours: Daily 10am-8pm
Phone: +1 303 322 7727
Internet: www.tatteredcover.com
Email: books@tatteredcover.com

Denver Premium Outlets

Denver Premium Outlets is the ultimate shopping destination for outlet enthusiasts, showcasing a broad range of well-known designer and lifestyle brands, all available at remarkable discounts of up to 65%. Additionally, visitors can enjoy a handful of dining options to satisfy their cravings.

Photo: Denver Premium Outlets

Address: 13801 Grant Street, Thornton
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-8pm, Sun 11am-7pm
Phone: +1 303 200 3805
Internet: www.premiumoutlets.com/outlet/denver

The Shops at Northfield

The Shops at Northfield is an open-air shopping plaza that offers a variety of shopping, dining, and entertainment options.

Conveniently located just 20 minutes from the Denver International Airport and 10 minutes from downtown Denver, The Shops at Northfield is a must-visit destination for locals and tourists alike. In addition to more than 80 retail stores and restaurants, The Shops at Northfield also boasts a comedy club and playhouse, providing visitors with even more entertainment options.

Photo: Syda Productions/Shutterstock.com
Address: 8340 Northfield Boulevard, Denver
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-8pm, Sun 11am-6pm
Phone: +1 303 375 5475
Internet: shopsatnorthfield.com

Park Meadows Mall

Posh style and refined selections lie within Colorado's only retail resort. The Park Meadows Mall has 185 stores and restaurants to ensure all of your shopping and dining needs are met, and then some. Stores include Armani Exchange, Anthropologie, Chico's, Eddie Bauer, Nordstrom, and more. A variety of dining options are available, with restaurants such as The Cheesecake Factory and Saj Mediterranean Grill.

Photo: Dragon Images/Shutterstock.com
Address: 8401 Park Meadows Center Drive, Lone Tree

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-8pm, Sun 11am-6pm
Phone: +1 303 792 2999
Internet: www.parkmeadows.com

Colorado Mills

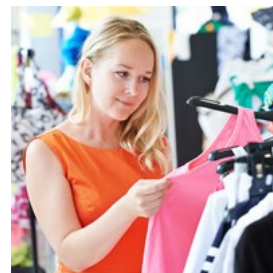

Located just 7 miles west of downtown Denver, Colorado Mills is the Denver Metro area's only indoor outlet mall and offers a quintessential shopping experience. With over 140 stores, shoppers can find an inimitable combination of world-famous fashion brands, services, recreation, and entertainment, plus plenty of dining options, making it the perfect destination for a full day of food, fashion, and fun for all.

Photo: elwynn/Shutterstock.com
Address: 14500 West Colfax Avenue, Lakewood
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-8pm, Sun 11am-6pm
Phone: +1 303 384 3000
Internet: www.simon.com/mall/colorado-mills

Flatiron Crossing

Over 200 apparel and specialty retailers await visitors at the Flatiron Crossing mall. Located between the cities of Denver and Boulder, this mall is readily accessible to Denver tourists at only a 27-minute drive. Included are home furnishing stores, children's apparel, exciting restaurants, and a cinema.

Photo: Dmitry Kalinovsky/Shutterstock.com
Address: One West Flatiron Crossing Drive, Broomfield
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-8pm, Sun 11am-6pm
Phone: +1 720 887 9900
Internet: www.flatironcrossing.com

Art District on Santa Fe

Santa Fe Drive area is known to be a hot spot for those interested in browsing through art galleries and possibly planning to purchase some art—prices range from as low as 30 dollars up to thousands, depending on how successful the artist is. The first Friday of each month turns the area into a kind of entertainment center with gallery doors wide open, street performers on every corner and food trucks lining the drive itself.

Photo: sirtravelalot/Shutterstock.com

Address: 858 Santa Fe Drive, Denver

Phone: +1 720 773 2373

Internet: denversartdistrict.org

Email: hello@denversartdistrict.org

Hope Tank

Hope Tank is a charitable boutique and the brainchild of a former social worker. As a result, the shop sells homemade products from all over the world and Denver itself. The artists donate a portion of their sales to a charity, allowing customers to become part of social change. Products vary widely, from art and clothing to beautiful jewelry.

Photo: Robert Kneschke/Shutterstock.com

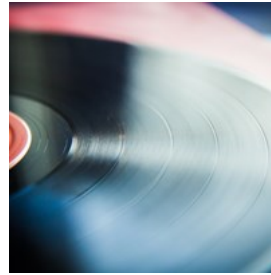

Address: 1434 East 22nd Avenue, Denver

Phone: +1 303 837 1565

Internet: hopetank.org

Email: hopetankco@gmail.com

Twist & Shout Records

Denver's largest vinyl and record-selling store, Twist & Shout Records not only buys and sells records, CDs, and DVDs but also regularly hosts gigs by renowned musicians. Books, video games, and all sorts of music-related memorabilia can be found here as well, along with tickets to concerts and events in the area.

Photo: Sami Pyylampi/Shutterstock.com

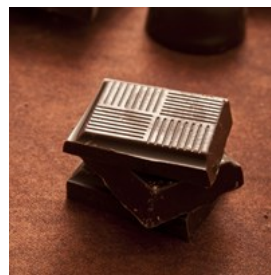

Address: 2508 East Colfax Avenue, Denver

Opening hours: Mon–Sat 10am–7pm, Sun 10am–6pm

Phone: +1 303 722 1943

Internet: twistandshout.com

Roberta's Chocolates

This delightful boutique specializes in all things chocolate. The focal point is an array of chocolate and chocolate-covered goodies, complemented by an assortment of other delectable treats like truffles, fudge, and Colorado-themed sweets. In addition, you can find a variety of chocolate-based gift options that are perfect for any occasion.

Photo: 2creative/Shutterstock.com

Address: 4022 Tennyson Street, Denver

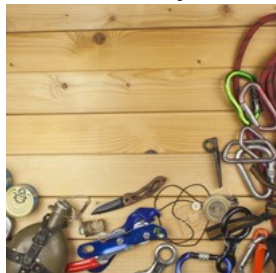

Opening hours: Mon–Fri 9am–4pm, Sat 10am–4pm

Phone: +1 303 824 2069

Internet: www.robertaschocolates.com

Email: roberta@madeincolorado.com

Bass Pro Shops

fishing, or hunting.

Bass Pro offers an extensive selection of equipment for outdoor activities, catering to all your needs, whether you're going camping,

Photo: Marsan/Shutterstock.com

Address: 7970 Northfield Boulevard, Denver

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 9am-8pm, Sun 10am-7pm

Phone: +1 720 385 3600

Internet: www.basspro.com

Email: social@basspro.com

Regal Vintage

Regal Vintage is a centrally located vintage shop that offers an eclectic collection of used and retro clothing, accessories, and children's toys, along with a few quirky items.

The store is known for its exceptional customer service and also boasts a resident cat that adds to its charm.

Photo: Tonktiti/Shutterstock.com

Address: 1866 South Broadway, Denver

Opening hours: Wed-Sat 11am-6pm, Sun noon-4pm

Phone: +1 303 830 0216

Email: regalvintagestore@gmail.com

The Truffle Cheese Shop

With a history spanning twenty years, The Truffle Cheese Shop proudly holds the title of the longest-running cheese shop in the region. Their specialty lies in small-batch artisan cheese and cured meats sourced from different corners of the world. To ensure the highest quality and an extensive selection, each cheese is meticulously handpicked from only a few of the finest purveyors.

Photo: lsantilli/Shutterstock.com

Address: 2906 East 6th Avenue, Denver

Opening hours: Tue-Fri 11am-6pm, Sat 10am-4pm

Phone: +1 303 322 7363

Internet: www.denvertruffle.com

Email: info@denvertruffle.com

TOURIST INFORMATION

Denver International Airport/Visit Denver

Passport / Visa

Citizens of the Schengen countries, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Japan, South Korea,

Taiwan, and the Kingdom of Brunei can visit the United States for up to 90 days without applying for a visa (as well as citizens of Andorra, Lichtenstein, Monaco and San Marino). Citizens of these countries must obtain an ESTA (Electronic System for Travel Authorization) before traveling. All other travelers must obtain a visa before visiting the United States. International travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the country.

Photo: ConvertKit/Unsplash

Denver International Airport (DEN)

downtown Denver.

Denver International Airport (DEN) is the primary airport servicing the Denver area, located 24.4 miles (39.9 kilometers) northeast of Ground transportation is available from the level 5 Jeppesen Terminal. SkyRide is a convenient and affordable bus service to and from Denver International Airport. Catch frequent SkyRide buses throughout the RTD service area at bus stops and at many Park-n-Rides. Buses run every day at 15-minute intervals, tickets may be purchased at RTD counters.

Other available transportation includes taxi services, rental car companies, hotel shuttles, public buses, commuter shuttles, luxury limousines, mountain carriers, and charter buses.

Photo: Marco López/Unsplash

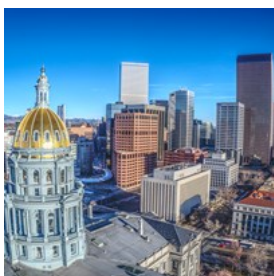

Address: Denver International Airport, Denver

Phone: +1 303 342 2000

Internet: www.flydenver.com

Email: info@flydenver.com

Best Time to Visit

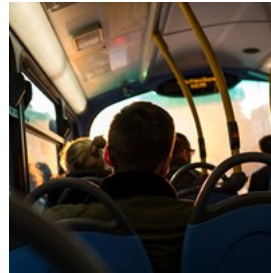

during the winter. There is a multitude of events

Denver sits conveniently en route to the slopes of the Rocky Mountains, which makes it a must-visit for those making their way there going on around Christmas time, which is an added incentive. For city exploration, the summers are best, with warm, yet not uncomfortably hot temperatures.

Photo: Acton Crawford/Unsplash

Public Transport

In Denver, the Regional Transportation District (RTD) is responsible for managing public transportation. With over 170 bus routes, 12 rail lines, and a range of specialty services, RTD provides convenient and reliable transportation options for getting around the city.

If you're planning to use public transportation throughout the day, consider purchasing a daily RTD pass. These passes can be bought online or at various RTD retail outlets.

Photo: Mediocre Studio/Unsplash

Internet: www.rtd-denver.com

Taxi

commonly used.

The following cab company serves the Denver area: Denver Taxi Cab +1 303 335 9996 Ride-sharing apps, such as Uber and Lyft, are also

Photo: Maik Winnecke/Unsplash

Post

Post offices and mailboxes can be found all around the city. Some addresses are: 450 West 14th Avenue, Denver
1541 North Marion Street, Denver

Street, Denver

2620 East 12th Avenue, Denver

3700 Tennyson Street, Denver

Photo: Ali Bakhtiari/Unsplash

Phone: +1 800 275 8777

Pharmacy

Denver has a plentiful supply of retail stores, including but not limited to Walgreens, CVS, Walmart, Target, and several independent chain stores.

Photo: Dima Mukhin/Unsplash

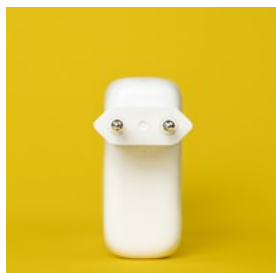

Telephone

Country code: +1 Area codes in Denver: 303 and 720

Photo: Miryam León/Unsplash

Electricity

120V, 60 Hz Plug types A & B

Photo: Mika Baumeister/Unsplash

Population

Metro area: 2.93 million (2023)

Currency

1 US dollar (US$) = 100 cents

Opening hours

General opening hours for shops are 10 am to 9 pm Monday to Saturday, and noon to 6pm on Sundays.

Internet

www.denver.org

Newspapers

The Denver Post — www.denverpost.com

The Advocate (print only)

The Clarion — duclarion.com

Colorado Politics — www.coloradopolitics.com

Denver Business Journal — www.bizjournals.com/denver

Emergency numbers

Ambulance, Fire, and Police: 911

Denver Police Department: +1 720 913 2000

Tourist information

Tourist Information Center at Denver Union Station

1701 Wynkoop Street, Denver

Open Wed–Sat 9am–4pm

+1 303 519 2388