THE CITY

Dreamer Company/Shutterstock.com

Sitting proudly astride the stunning Gulf of İzmir, the city divides into distinct areas each with its own character and ambiance. The cultural and geographical heart of the city is the Konak district, a seafront area of contrast that captures the spirit of İzmir. Konak is all about modernist architecture and wide boulevards, a great place to let the hours pass while eating, drinking, walking, or people-watching.

Just behind the seafront is the Bazaar, an atmospheric warren of narrow winding streets, where the sights and sounds of the traders transport you back to far distant times and undoubtedly impress any visitor to the city.

North of Konark is the Alsancak area. Alsancak has undergone a dramatic renaissance and has been transformed from an unwanted neighbour into an exciting and happening party district where you will find enough nighttime entertainment to satisfy the most hardened hedonist.

İzmir Clock Tower

In the heart of Konak Square stands İzmir's most iconic landmark, the Clock Tower. Erected in 1901 to mark the 25th anniversary of Sultan Abdul Hamid II's reign, the tower has a height of 25 metres and features four floors and an octagonal plan, characterised by a white marble platform and cut stone structures. No visit would be complete without a photograph next to the majestic monument.

Kordon

Kordon is a beloved waterfront promenade along the Aegean Sea, known for its scenic beauty and vibrant atmosphere. Lined with palm trees and overlooking the azure waters, Kordon offers a picturesque setting for leisurely strolls, bike riding and relaxation. It is also a sought-after spot for watching the sunset. The promenade is dotted with cafés, restaurants, and bars, as well as museums and galleries making it a popular destination for locals and visitors alike.

Kadifekale

Perched atop Mount Pagos in the heart of İzmir, Kadifekale offers a panoramic view of the surrounding landscape and the Aegean Sea. Also known as 'Velvet Castle', Kadifekale boasts a rich past dating back to various periods, including Hellenistic, Roman, and Byzantine times. Visitors can explore the archaeological remains while enjoying breathtaking vistas of İzmir and the coastline below. At sunset, the call to prayer echoes throughout the city, reverberating in a show of İzmir's soul. Linked to the centre by a bus line, it is also ideal for a suggestive hike.

Ephesus Archaeological Site

An ancient Greek settlement, Ephesus is one of the best-preserved archaeological sites in the Eastern Mediterranean.

The marvellously excavated ruins transport visitors back in time, showcasing the splendour of a bygone era. The site's historical significance spans from classical Greece through the Roman Empire, when it served as the Mediterranean's primary commercial centre. Paved streets wind through squares, baths, and monumental ruins, creating a captivating journey through centuries of history. Conveniently located just an hour's ride from İzmir, Ephesus is an ideal destination for a day trip.

Iz89/Shutterstock.com

İzmir is awash with dining establishments, from the simple hole-in-the-wall kebab shop to the refinery of the five-star restaurants. Most of the cheaper eats are located around the Bazaar and the Alsancak region. For a more upscale ambience, head to the trendy Karşıyaka waterfront, where seafood restaurants serve the catch of the day with a breathtaking view of the Aegean Sea. Don't miss out on iconic dishes like iskender kebab, lahmacun and İzmir köfte (spiced meatballs).

Altın Kapi

Established in 1978 as a humble meatball shop, Altın Kapi has evolved into an esteemed and elegant restaurant renowned for serving one of the best iskender kebabs in İzmir. The rich menu showcases a variety of grilled and pita options, including the famous inegöl meatballs.

CAFÉS

sebbboy12/Shutterstock.com

In Turkey, tea (çay) is generally more popular and widely consumed than coffee. It is often served in small tulip-shaped glasses with a saucer. The act of drinking tea holds a strong social significance, with people frequently enjoying it throughout the day. However, while tea is more prevalent, coffee, especially Turkish coffee, also holds cultural importance in the country. Turkish coffee is known for its rich and aromatic flavour, prepared through a traditional brewing method.

In Izmir, some of the best areas to go to for coffee and tea are Alsancak — the Kordon waterfront is particularly popular, offering a scenic setting to enjoy your drink —, the historic bazaar area of Kemeraltı, which is dotted with traditional Turkish tea houses, the central district of Konak and Bornova, which boasts trendy coffee shops and cafés.

Reyhan

Reyhan, arguably İzmir's best patisserie, has delighted locals and tourist for over 50 years with its high-quality sweet treats, including cakes, handmade chocolates, and freshly baked pastries blending Turkish and French flavours.

Located in a quiet street in Alsancak, this beloved spot is a must-visit for visitors, offering a charming setting to gather with friends and indulge in their famous pastries and cakes over a cup of coffee or tea.

The shopping scene in İzmir is diverse, offering a mix of traditional bazaars, modern malls, and specialty shops. Whether you're looking for traditional Turkish goods, international brands, or unique handmade items, İzmir has something to offer for every shopper.

Kemeraltı Bazaar

Kemeraltı Bazaar is a vibrant and historic marketplace that has been a bustling centre of commerce for centuries.

Dating back to the 17th century, this bustling bazaar is a labyrinth of narrow alleys lined with a myriad of shops, stalls, and loud street vendors. Travellers can explore a wide range of offerings, including spices, textiles, jewelry, and traditional Turkish crafts. Beyond shopping, Kemeraltı offers a cultural experience, with historic landmarks such as Hisar Mosque and the Clock Tower.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Iulilel/Shutterstock.com

İzmir Adnan Menderes Airport (ADB)

İzmir Adnan Menderes Airport, situated 18 km southwest of the city centre, offers various transportation options to and from the airport.

Travellers can choose from the convenient Izban trains, which connect to İzmir's metro system, providing frequent and efficient transportation. Alternatively, Havaş shuttle buses are available on the arrivals floor (fees vary according to the destination). Taxis are readily available just outside the terminal, offering a quick and direct option. Additionally, car rental services are conveniently located inside the airport at the greeters' hall of the domestic/international terminal arrivals floor.

Best Time To Visit

Since Izmir has mostly a Mediterranean climate with relatively low rainfall, a cool sea breeze during the nights and heat and dry summers, it is best to visit during the months of June to August. The weather will be the most pleasant then and you will have the opportunity to explore Izmir and its surroundings. If you are looking for a budget-friendly summer holiday, summer room rates are at their lowest in June.

Passport/Visa

Visa-free entry for the purpose of tourism is granted to citizens of 78 countries, which includes nearly all of Europe and other countries around the world. Those who do require a visa can now take advantage of the online e-visa application system, which is easy to use and allows applicants to obtain an electronic visa within a few minutes. Travellers' passports should generally be valid for 6 months following the end of the trip, but there are exceptions to the rule, and nationals of some countries may even enter the country with an ID card rather than a passport.

Public Transport

Dolmuş is a shared minibus or van that operates on set routes, picking up and dropping off passengers along the way. These minibuses provide an affordable and flexible means of public transportation in İzmir, connecting various neighbourhoods and locations within the city. Passengers can hail a dolmuş at designated stops, and the fare is usually paid directly to the driver upon boarding.

Ferries shuttle between Konak and Alsancak. The return crossing takes 1 hr 15 mins. The metro is probably the least effective way of getting around İzmir.

Taxi

Taxis can be flagged down on the street or found at designated taxi stands located throughout the city.

These are typically at busy transportation hubs, major squares, and popular areas. Alternatively, you can book a taxi through apps like Uber and BiTaksi.

Taxis in Izmir are generally safe and reliable, but it's always a good practice to be cautious and use licensed taxis to avoid any issues.
