THE CITY

Chris Parypa Photography/Shutterstock.com

With around eight million visitors annually, Ocean City is a top vacation spot for many. The city has been a top fishing stop ever since its founding in 1875. Before its founding, Ocean City was known as "The Ladies Resort to the Ocean," a statement that continues to be true today. Within the city is also a memorial dedicated to the firefighters who lost their lives during September 11, 2001.

DO & SEE

Steve Heap/Shutterstock.com

There is a lot to do and a lot to see in Ocean City. The city has amusement parks, themed golf courses, an Ice skating rink and Ripley's Believe It or Not museum. At every turn, there is an exciting place to explore, which makes this city an excellent vacation spot!

Northside Park

Northside Park is great either you go alone or with your whole family. The amazing reflective waters and vibrant green grass provide the perfect place for a nice and relaxing walk in the park. Three lighted softball/baseball fields, a soccer field, a multipurpose field, a fishing lagoon, a foot bridge, concession stands, two playgrounds, a picnic area, two piers, a gazebo, walking/jogging paths, and more can be found here to make your day!
